Surprise Marriage

DICKSON-SMITH WEDDING RITES ARE ANNOUNCED

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alice Roberta Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickson of 1438 W. 214th st. and William Daniel Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith of 1430 214th st.

The wedding ceremony took place at Yuma, Ariz. on July 31. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are graduates of Torrance High School. During the last year Mr. Smith served with the Merchant Marine in the Pacific.

Parking Meters Lead to Recall Of Councilmen

Recall proceedings instituted against the mayor and three Glendale city councilmen over the installation of parking meters resulted in their recall last week by voters.

The recall committee charged that the four councilmen had misused their authority in connection with installation of the parking meters. The parking meter issue is to be decided by the voters at the November election.

Proposal for installation of parking meters in business districts has been turned down by a number of cities, including Torrance. Meters recently were removed from Gardena streets following overwhelming protests.

... Seaside Ranchos ...

Discussing a subject of interest to nearly everyone today, Dion Bessmer, a Seaside Ranchos resident, will be the main speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Seaside Ranchos Home Owners Association this evening. Bessmer, who is a chemical engineer with the Navy, will speak on "The Fundamentals of Atomic Warfare, or What to Do if the 'A' Bombs Fall." The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the Torrance City Hall with Lt. Comm. Bryon Johnson, president of the Association, presiding.

Two hours of cartoons have been scheduled for the free movie in Walteria tomorrow evening, beginning as soon after sunset as possible. These free movies are presented weekly by the Walteria Business Men's club and will continue to be shown through September 17. A chapter of the serial, "Clancy of the Mounted," is included in each weekly program.

A brand new Seaside resident is Donald Forbes Rowan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rowan, born last Saturday, Aug. 14, at California Hospital, Los Angeles. Mrs. Rowan and young son, who weighed in at 6 lbs. 11 1/2 ounces, will be at their Carol drive home after this week end. The Rowans have a daughter, Gail, four years old.

P.T.A. calendar parties in the tract this week included a party for four at the John Dalton home with Mrs. Dan Bessmer, Mrs. Sam Dale and Mrs. James Hall as guests. Couples attending the P.T.A. get-together at the Don Halls Monday evening were the Paul Roettgers, Stan Lockes, Bryon Johnsons, Stan Paul Barth and Mrs. Dan Bessmer.

With his three daughters and their families in attendance, Daniel Sweeney was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party at the William Morris home Sunday afternoon. Helping him celebrate his 69th birthday with a big turkey dinner were the three sisters, Mrs. George McCabe and Mrs. Charles Smith of Long Beach and Mrs. William Morris, their husbands and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson are entertaining Mrs. Peterson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sabia and Joseph Jr., of Clifton, N. J. The Sabias are on a month's vacation in the west and plan a two-week visit at the Peterson home on Reese road.

Mr. Paul Barth was at Catalina for five days this week to meet and return with his daughter, Sharon, who has spent a two-week vacation on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mahaffey enjoyed a week-end trip last week to San Diego, crossing the border to Rosarita. While they were away, Mr. Mahaffey's mother, Mrs. Laura Mahaffey, of Chicago, a recent house guest, stayed with the children.

Mrs. Robert Mease was the honored guest at a surprise birthday party given at the Hermosa Beach home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Mease, last week.

Little Robert Mahaffey celebrated his fourth birthday recently with a party in the backyard of the Mahaffey home on Sharon lane. Helping Robert celebrate the occasion with games, Mrs. Emma Wiley has returned to her Los Angeles home after spending last week at the C. L. Gaul home.
