Young Chess Champs Will Play Match

Five brany youngsters from the Torrance schools will compete in a district chess tournament at La Canada elementary school in La Canada next Tuesday, local recreation officials announced yesterday.

During the summer vacation months the game was introduced at the playgrounds and attracted dozens of serious-minded youngsters. Not only that, but every game has a sizable number of kibitzers who stand patiently looking over the players' shoulders while they play the board, figuring out the next move.

Champs in local senior division play-offs will compete at La Canada next Tuesday are Gary Carter, 14; Ray Weber, 11; and Bob Scarborough, 11. The other two of the quintet are members of the junior division—Tommy Hammack and David Hill.
