Contestants Sunday evening were Mary Brown, Diane Garcia, Stanley Bernhardt, Tom Oulmette, Sally Gassaway and Roy Ogden.

The former Virginia May Zamperini is shown when she became the bride of Howard Gordon Flye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Flye, of Beaver, Oregon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zamperini, of 2028 Gramercy avenue.

VIRGINIA MAY ZAMPERINI
WED TO HOWARD FLYE

Virginia May Zamperini was one of the loveliest brides of the season at her marriage to Howard Gordon Flye. The Sunday afternoon ceremony, attended by 150 guests, was performed by the Rev. P. J. McGuinness in Nativity Catholic church.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zamperini, the bride wore traditional white satin fashioned on train with a sweetheart neckline outlined in seed pearls. Her three-tiered veil of bridal illusion, edged with imported French lace, cascaded from a coronet of illusion, edged with pearls. She carried a white prayerbook on which was placed a white orchid and bouvardia with satin streamers.

Mrs. Harvey Flammer of Montrose, as her sister's matron of honor, wore pink marselette with matching head-dress and carried pink and yellow roses.

Little Claudia Dossi, niece of the bride, was flower girl in

SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED
MUSICAL TALENT

Local applicants for the South Bay Civic Symphony Association Musical Scholarships have been received by Mrs. K. V. Hincley, local representative for the association.

To date Edna Sandstrom, Carolyn Halling, Eldridge Walker and Helton Alice Traferer, all from Lomita, have made application for the two scholarships, the best vocalist and best instrumentalist.

Saluting National Youth Week the association launched the contest which will give young men and women between the ages of 15 and 25 an opportunity to present their talents. Two full scholarships will be given for the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts. Additional awards will be given by the service clubs of the South Bay area.

Ten of the finest musicians will judge the preliminary auditions with Miss Alice Sturdy, instructor of music at Narbonne High School, as one of the judges for the vocalists.

The first auditions will be held Monday, Oct. 4 from 4 to 6 o'clock at the LaMar Theater in Manhattan Beach.

powder blue nylon net and James Dossi, her nephew, was ring bearer. Both are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dossi, of Wilmington.

Clifford Gilker attended the bridegroom as best man, and Louis and Pete Zamperini, brothers of the bride, and Harvey Flammer her brother-in-law, ushered.

Mrs. Neil J. McConlogue played the accompaniment for John Hertert, well-known baritone, who sang "Ave Maria," (Schubert) and "Panis Angelicus" (Cesar Frank).

At the reception in Torrance Woman's clubhouse which immediately followed the church ceremony, Mrs. Zamperini received her guests in beige crepe with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Miss Doris Aull of Los Angeles and Mrs. Joseph Bishop of Compton, poured and Mrs. Evelyn May, of La Canada, presided at the guest book.

The happy couple left for a brief honeymoon in Santa Barbara and upon their return will receive their friends at 814 S. Hobart boulevard, Los Angeles.
