Exhibition of Egyptian Art
 Is Assembled

Egypt, a photographic exhibition prepared by Life Magazine, is now on view to the public at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, according to an announcement by James H. Brewster, Jr., director of the Museum. It opened last Monday and will continue through the month. The exhibition contains the most recent photographs of remaining art monuments from an Egyptian culture that flourished for 3000 years before Christ. It was assembled under the direction of W. C. Hayes, department of Egyptology, Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. The photographs are distinguished by their clarity and they convey a sense of scale often lacking in photographs of the colossi of ancient Egypt. Although most of the monuments are well known to scholars, they have not in recent times been so carefully and richly documented.

Seek Permit
 for Hot Dog,
 Candy Stand

Action on the petition of George and Mary Tomajic for a zoning variance to permit the construction of a refreshment stand at 4125 Pacific Coast Highway, WALTERIA, has been delayed until next Tuesday night's meeting of the Torrance City Planning Commission. The Tomajics plan to erect a stucco building 10 by 12 feet, 10 feet high, and would sell hot dogs, candy and soft drinks. The property is located in an A-1 zone.
