

Breakfast Is PTA Benefit

The home of Mrs. Emmett Ingram, 1320 Arlington avenue, Tuesday morning was the setting for a delightful "come-as-you-are" breakfast. Proceeds will swell the treasury of Torrance Elementary P.T.A.

Assisting Mrs. Ingram in serving were Mrs. Ben Smith, Mrs. Otto Willett and Mrs. Paul Smith. Guests were furnished transportation by Mrs. Charles A. Curtiss, Mrs. Marshall Taplin, Mrs. Richard Colburn and Mrs. Charles Mearning. Assorted coffee cakes, doughnuts and coffee were served to approximately 100 guests.

Methodists' Rummage Sale

The Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church will sponsor a rummage sale to be held from 10 a.m. until 5 o'clock Friday and Saturday, Oct. 22 and 23, in the church social rooms.

Among articles to be offered for sale are clothing for the entire family, draperies, curtains, dishes, a complete set of cooking utensils, like new, and garden tools.

Donors who need transportation for sale goods may call Mrs. Alice Palmer, Torrance 2848-W.

To Work for Music Badge

Torrance Girl Scouts who are 10 years of age or older, will gather in First Christian church social hall at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 23.

Purpose of the meeting is the organization by Lin Brannum, choir director, of the girls into a choral group. The Girl Scouts will work towards earning their group music badge.

Food Sale Is Planned

Torrance Memorial Chapter of Gold Star Mothers will sponsor a food sale to be held Saturday morning, Oct. 23, at the entrance to Levy's Department Store.

The sale, which will begin at 9:30, will feature delicious pies, cakes, cookies and other baked goods, according to Mrs. Violet Brooks, general chairman.

Birthday Night To Be Observed by Townsend Club

Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will observe birthdays of members at the dancing party set for tomorrow evening in Woman's clubhouse.

Music for dancing will begin at 8:15. Everyone is invited.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY HAS MANY PROJECTS

V.F.W. Auxiliary of Post No. 425, when plans will be formulated for official inspection on Nov. 8.

The Auxiliary will offer for sale homemade pies Saturday morning at the entrance to the Gay Shop on Sartori avenue. Members are reminded of the weekly sewing sessions in the clubhouse each Thursday. A heavy quota of hospital needs is to be met, it was learned.

Richard Bradford Entertains on Sixth Birthday

Richard Bradford, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bradford Jr., of 1323 Beech avenue, celebrated his birthday with a colorful party Tuesday afternoon at the family home.

Ricky and his guests were delighted with the Halloween decorations used for the refreshment table set in the patio and the festive birthday cake served on a musical plate. Guests included the Derouin twins Pat and Mike, Danny Davis, Danny Fulton, Chuckie Litafer, Kenny Gates, Russell Wal-smith, Dale Duncan, Carol Donaher, Judy Hagen, Steven Humphreys, Joanne Sprout, David Ludwig and Ricky's brother Frankie.

PERRY SCHOOL PTA OUTLINES PLANS FOR OCTOBER MEETING

Next Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, the Perry School P.T.A. will hold the second meeting of the school year. During the business meeting the budget for the year will be presented for the associations approval.

Miss Marie Swenson, school nurse, will speak on "Improving Health Standards." Psychiatrist, Jack Romuan, will discuss the psychological development of children and answer any questions parents may wish to ask concerning their children. Community singing will be led by Mrs. Harry Van Bellehem.

Mrs. George Hood and Mrs. W. J. Pickler will be hostesses for the social hour.

Attend Fete, Plan Meeting

The home of Mrs. Marilyn Harris on Halldale avenue was the setting for an enjoyable pot luck supper held last night with members of Torrance Chapter, Women of the Moose, as guests. Highlight of the affair was an exchange of secret pal gifts.

Mrs. Elsie Smith, senior regent, asks a large attendance at the regular business meeting, set for next Wednesday evening.

Mary L. Calitri, publicity chairman.

420 NEW MEMBERS

Mrs. Don Gray, membership chairman of the Halldale P.T.A., has announced that approximately 420 members have joined the unit during the recent drive. Several of the rooms have not yet turned in complete returns and as the tally is running so close the winners will not be known until the final count.

Shopper (after looking at everything in the department): "Thank you, but I am just looking for a friend."

Disgusted clerk: "Well here's one bolt of green silk you haven't seen. Do you think she could be in that?"

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO GREET 350 GUESTS

Highlight of the last business meeting of Torrance Junior Woman's Club was their choice of a district philanthropic project. Receiving popular acclaim were purchase of an iron lung and aid to a school for sub-normal children. All federated clubs will vote and one project will be selected in which all will cooperate.

A program of accordion music was presented by Janece Colombo, 11 year old daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Colombo. Plans were revealed for the district conference to be held in Torrance civic auditorium, Monday, Oct. 25. Approximately 350 representatives from clubs in Los Angeles and other counties will attend. The conference will open with a business meeting to be featured by selection of a district philanthropic project. Average district contribution to the projects is $2,500.
