

FLOWERS OF AUTUMN—Jackie Potter, theme girl for the 1948 Southern California Fall Flower Show for November 4-7 at Brookside Park, Pasadena, typifies the show's theme, "Las Flores de Otoño," meaning "the flowers of autumn," with a large cluster of chrysanthemums.

All This and . . .

Flowers, Desert and Santa All Come to Life During November

November brings a month of fall flower shows, sports on the ocean and golf links, and the desert season getting into full swing. This was revealed today in the events schedule issued by the All-Year Club, which advertises the community's half-billion-dollar-a-year tourist industry.

Oceanside holds a White Sea Bass Derby all November, with contestants fishing from the city pier, boats and barge. First annual Duffer's Tournament is held at Rancho Santa Fe Nov. 4-6, open only to those with handicaps between 13 and 26. Newport Harbor Harbor stages the Thanksgiving Day Yacht Races on Nov. 25.

Sunfun Hikes and Desert Breakfast Rides are under way every Saturday at Palm Springs. Guides explain desert wonders on the hikes, and guests return from rides on horseback or in surrey for a cowboy chuckwagon breakfast.

Death Valley's narrow gauge railroad takes visitors on a bo-rax mine tour, passing crystalline white caverns and going through tunnels. The "baby" railroad leaves Ryan at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Traditional dances of Europe and America are performed 1-5 p.m. Nov. 14 at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds at Pomona, with the Foothill area folk and square dance groups acting as hosts. The gathering is sponsored by the Folk Dance Federation of California.

Featuring chrysanthemums and orchids, the Southern California Flower Show is held Nov. 4-7 in Pasadena. The Glendale Chrysanthemum Show is held Nov. 5-7 in the Glendale Civic Auditorium.

Opening of Hollywood's Santa Claus Lane on Hollywood boulevard is tentatively set for Nov. 26. Santa rides down the boulevard nightly beginning at 8 o'clock until Christmas, with a film star at his side.

Manhattan Beach decorates its pier and on Nov. 27 stages a Christmas party for children. San Diego's Plaza is transformed into a "Mother Goose" land, beginning Nov. 27, and Santa talks to children in the park.

"Las Posadas" (The Lodgings), drama of Christmas in Old Mexico, is presented Nov. 24-Jan. 8 in the Padua Hills theatre above Claremont.
