Tartars Will Crown Queen

One of three candidates vying for the title of "Football Queen" will be crowned in ceremonies to be held during the Torrance High Varsity Club Dance in the gymnasium Saturday night, according to Rano Sullivan and Dick Turner, Varsity Club officers.
Seeking the title are Evelyn Stoin, senior class; Joyce Parrot, junior class; and Alice Gargalis, sophomore class. The freshman class has declined an offer to enter a candidate and will be the unknown factor in the voting.
Each ticket sold to the dance is good for 100 votes. Additional votes can be purchased for a penny apiece. Proceeds will go to the Varsity Club to defray expenses of the affair.
Donatnik Donatoni will act as maitre d' of the evening and has made elaborate plans to convert the gymnasium into a teenage night club with ring-side tables and appropriate decorations.
