

Reynolds - Galyardt Wed In Beach City

Miss Maurine Galyardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Galyardt, of 1617 Acacia avenue, was a lovely bride when she exchanged vows with Mr. Jack E. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reynolds, of Long Beach. Rev. Johnson Calhoun officiated in the presence of intimate friends and relatives of the principals gathered in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pastel blue suit with contrasting accessories and carried a white orchid on a matching prayer book. Miss Billie June Price, as maid of honor, was attired in a gray suit with green accessories complemented by a rose corsage. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Robert F. Reynolds.

Dorothy Christie played the wedding marches and her own accompaniment for appropriate selections.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the ceremony. Mrs. Galyardt received her guests in a tan suit with brown accessories, the bridegroom's mother attended in a green suit dress with wine accessories. Both mothers wore "Bird of Paradise" corsages.

MR. AND MRS. CLAUD W. CROWELL Exchange nuptial vows

Crowell - Moffatt Vows Repeated Before 200

In an impressive Sunday afternoon ceremony performed in Central Evangelical Brethren church, Miss Dorothy Ellen Moffatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Moffatt, of 2716 E. Dorado avenue, became the bride of Mr. Claud W. Crowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crowell of Los Angeles. The Rev. H. Wesley Roloff officiated.

Beautifully attired in traditional white satin fashioned en train with a fitted lace bodice, sweetheart neckline and leg o' mutton sleeves, the bride carried a Colonial bouquet of red roses and bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her father, who escorted her up the aisle.

The bridal attendants were Mesdames J. D. Jirrels and Wesley Scruggs, wearing respectively blue and pink net over taffeta and Miss Janie Moffatt, in seafoam green taffeta, all of whom carried pink carnations and sweet peas. Little Nicky Sue Thomas was flower girl in a yellow satin frock with matching net bonnet.

Tommy Brubaker was the bridegroom's attendant and George Jacques and Bill Pearey ushered.

Mrs. Joe Bay played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Miss Dina Zuliani, who sang "All For You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception which followed in Guild hall, Mrs. George Jacques and Mrs. Bill Pearey were assisted by Mrs. Albert Stavens.

Mrs. Crowell was graduated from Chanute, Kansas, High School and received her diploma from Tulsa School of Beauty. The bridegroom, a high school graduate, is employed at Douglas Aircraft Company. They are at home at 1524 Acacia avenue.

Mrs. H. J. Jirrels, who arrived from Wichita, Kansas to serve as bridesmaid, remained for a week as the house guest of the bridal couple.

Among prenuptial showers given for the former Miss Moffatt was that at the home of Mrs. Grace Bartholomew on Acacia avenue with Mrs. Alethea Smith as co-hostess.

Attractive and useful miscellaneous gifts were presented in a novel treasure hunt by Mrs. Edna Moffatt, mother of the honoree and Mesdames Fay Rauss, Alice Dalmer, Mary Bartholomew, Thelma Jacques, Lillian Grey, Catherine Pearey, Anna Scruggs, Jessie Jacobs and the Misses Janie Moffatt, Joan Hyrdorn and Jo Crowell.

Dainty refreshments were served buffet style following an evening of appropriate games.

Another party given in her honor was a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Anna Bay with Mrs. Anna Scruggs and Miss Joan Hyrdorn as hostesses. A circus theme was followed throughout with a colorful circus cake featuring the party refreshments.

Present were the honoree and her mother, and Mesdames Anna Bay, Gladys Trichler, Lorene Mullen, Esther Keith, Georgia Marlow, Thelma Jacques, Margaret Stavens, Eva Templeton, Viola Simms, Eloise Gerber, Hardesty, Helen Phillips, Grace McClaren, Winnie Demick, Esther McClaren, Catherine Pearey, Eva Nelson, Leah Sorenson, Nadine Bay, E.
