Popular Couple Recite Vows Before 250 Guests

Among the lovely fall weddings was that which united Miss Ella M. Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Crawford of 1547 W. 221st street, and Howard King, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. King, of 22310 S. Figueroa st. The Rev. Tilford T. Ward officiated at the double-ring candle-light ceremony performed in Assembly of God church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin fashioned with long sleeves and train. The chiffon yoke was edged with a dainty self ruffle. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with a detachable orchid corsage.

In the entourage were Miss Thelma Ball as maid of honor, wearing pink chiffon and carrying baby pink roses; Mrs. Floy Jackson in aqua and Miss Bernice Payne in orchid, bridesmaids both carried yellow roses and lavender sweet peas. Little Andrea Perkins, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a dainty white frock. Charles Wayne Williams, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Stewart Cooke attended the bridegroom as best man and Wayne Rammage of Long Beach, and Clyde Crawford, brother of the bride, ushered.

Mrs. Merle Applegate, organist, played the wedding marches and Mildred Sickles played the accompaniment for Mrs. Joy Swan, who sang.

A reception for 250 wedding guests followed at Wilmington Woman's clubhouse.

Mrs. King was graduated from Compton Junior College with the class of June '48 and since has been employed by the National Supply Company. The bridegroom received his diploma from Torrance High School. He is now employed with Shell Oil Company.

Following a honeymoon trip to San Diego Mr. and Mrs. King established their home at 1114 MacDonald avenue, Wilmington.

Harold Trezise Takes Bride In Solemn Rite

At home at 1211 Cota avenue, Harold Trezise and his bride, the former Lura Mae Sheen, whose marriage was solemnized recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Creighton, 2256 Torrance boulevard.

Giant Turner chrysanthemums and candelabra decorated the fireplace and created an effective setting for the double-ring ceremony performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Stanley Creighton, Methodist pastor of Reseda.

The bride was lovely in royal blue satin fashioned with an old-fashioned bustle, with matching hat and pink lace mits. She carried a nosegay of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Dorothy Fallor of San Diego, was her sister's matron of honor wearing pink net over satin and baby orchids. Swayne Johnson attended the bridegroom as best man.

At the reception following, Mrs. Creighton received her guests in a black and pink floral print, complemented by a corsage of gardenias and yellow roses. Mrs. Trezise attended in green gown and her corsage also was of gardenias and yellow roses.

A four-tiered wedding cake encircled with white baby chrysanthemums was served from a table lovely with a damask cloth and lighted candles in crystal holders. Pouring were Mrs. Fallor and Miss Barbara Barthell. Subsequently the happy couple left for a honeymoon at Palm Springs.

Mrs. Trezise was graduated from Torrance High School. Her husband, a member of the Torrance Police Department, also received his diploma from Torrance High School and served with the United States Navy in Pacific waters.

BAZAAR DINNER SERVED TO 150 CHURCH PATRONS

A bounteous spaghetti dinner was served Wednesday night at the Wayside Chapel by members of the Women's Society for Christian Service in connection with their annual fall bazaar.

With Mrs. Ray Hutson, general chairman, in charge of the dinner and assisted by an able committee in the kitchen and dining room more than 150 were served.

Tables of fancy work and greeting cards were on sale through the afternoon and evening hours.

TIMOTHY LE BLANC REMOVED TO SAN PEDRO HOSPITAL

Timothy LeBlanc, four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. LeBlanc of 26032 Eshelman ave., who was taken to the General Hospital in Los Angeles, suffering with polio several weeks ago was recently transferred to San Pedro Hospital for further treatment.

Herbie DeFriez, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. DeFriez, of 1943 W. 262nd street also is recovering from polio at the General Hospital.

Moved to the convalescent ward, the DeFriez lad is improving rapidly, his parents state.
