

"Mom, can I throw an engagement party for Louise next Saturday... If she'll stay engaged that long!"

Two-day Rummage Sale Plans Near Completion

Mrs. Grace Harper, as general chairman for the Central Evangelical Guild-sponsored rummage sale set for Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20, will have as her assistants the guild president, Mrs. Alice Speigner, and Mrs. Maude Look. Location of the sale is former Terry Dime Store, 2083 Torrance boulevard.

The ladies report that a fine selection of household articles have been received and more have been promised for the sale days. Included are curtains, gas fire logs, dishes, pictures and other household goods; toys of all kinds and a wide variety of men's and women's suits, other clothing and shoes in addition to children's garments and shoes.

Friends of the guild and the church are urged to support the ways and means project.

TONIGHT'S PARTY PLANS ARE SET BY CATHOLIC LADIES

Mrs. Regina Allred will serve as chairman for this evening's Catholic ladies card party in Nativity hall, Cota at Manuel avenue.

Assisting with party arrangements will be Mesdames Putman, MacDonald, Babbitt, Johnson, Dunnyer, Pennington, Martin, Stevens, Neff, Webb, Rushfeldt, Lisoni, Merola and Nagel.

Presentation of the first door prize will be made at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinochle and 500 will follow. Customary prizes will be given and delicious refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited to these popular weekly parties.

LT. PRESLEY AND FAMILY MOVE TO SOUTH CAROLINA

Lt. and Mrs. V. B. Presley and son Gary, who recently arrived home from Japan where Lt. Presley has been stationed for the past two years, have moved to South Carolina where the Army officer is stationed at Fort Jackson.

Mrs. Presley and small son were with Mr. Presley for 13 months in Japan, arriving here to visit with Mrs. Presley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pope on Lomita boulevard before going on to South Carolina.

Rheumatic fever is the greatest enemy of childhood, annually killing more children between the ages of 5 and 14 than any other disease. Help fight this dread disease through buying Christmas Seals, which support the year-round program of the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Subject for discussion at next Tuesday night's World Events Forum at the Nazarene church, Carson and Denker streets, will be "Behind the China Crisis." The forum series is being conducted by Glenn Corbin, retired Congregational church minister, and is sponsored by the Shoestring Strip Community Council. His subject for Nov. 30 will be "United Nations as a World Force."

Members of Sigma Rho chapter of Delphian Society will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Torrance library lecture room. Objective of the study group meeting will be to consider the role of China in the development of Asia, and its relation to world peace.

Topics for discussion will include: "China's Position in the World"; "Aspects of Chinese Civilization"; "The Difficult Road to National Unity"; and "China's Present-Day Problems."

Then there was the rich old gentleman sitting in his wheelchair beside an open window as a slick chick walked by, displaying a comely figure. "Quick, Jenkins," called the old gentleman to his valet. Bring me my teeth! I want to whistle!"

Automobile assembly, the outstanding example of modern mass production, may be observed at the New Lincoln Mercury plant at Eastern and Slauson avenues, Los Angeles. Regular tours begin at 9 and 10 a.m. and 1 and 2 p.m. Monday through Friday.
