plete the purchase of an incubator for Torrance Memorial Hospital, for which the Lions already have advanced the down payment. The Lions bought the original incubator for the hospital and aided in buying the second. A third is on the way and they are for free use for premature babies born at the hospital.

Chairman Diamond said it appears that funds will be raised sufficiently to provide the big party and complete the incubator purchase.

President Hookox invited other service clubs and women's organizations of Torrance to assist and cooperate in staging the big party.

Candy, apples, oranges and nuts will be supplied to every child who comes to the party. Members of the Fire Department will sack the sweets as in past years.

Santa Claus will be during the afternoon of the party, and an appropriate Yuletide programs being arranged by a committee under Lion L. Milton Isbell, secretary of the Torrance Y.M.C.A.

AT CEREMONY — Archbishop J. Francis A. MacIntyre, of the Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles, will participate in the dedication of the new Nativity School and Convent next Sunday, Nov. 28.

opened its doors last Sept. 10. Fully furnished and landscaped, it cost $120,285. The Sisters Convent at 1320 Cota avenue, which houses the faculty—the teaching Sisters of the Order of St. Joseph of Orange—was also completed in September.

"I wish to thank the people of Torrance and surrounding communities for their generous cooperation in making this great day possible," Father McGuinness said yesterday. "A souvenir booklet which is being prepared expresses more in detail what these new buildings mean to the future development of this area." "A cordial invitation is extended to everyone irrespective of creed or race to attend next Sunday afternoon's ceremonies."

Gra-Y Clubs Father-Son Event Tonight

The Gra-Y Clubs of the Torrance YMCA will have a "Father and Son" banquet tonight at 6:30 o'clock in the Torrance woman's Club. The boys' work committee, composed of Gil Derouin, Dr. John Heiman, and A. C. Turner, are making the arrangements for nine Gra-Y Clubs.

Adult leaders for the groups are Robert Lee, V. T. Vanderpool, Marvin Goettsch, Clyde Millam, Leo Wagner, Jim Helght, Melvin Miller, Emil Real and Roy Sullivan. The enrollment now exceeds over 200 boys, ages 8 to 14. Mothers of the Greenstreaks Club who will help serve are Mrs. J. E. Long, Mrs. S. J. Derouin, Mrs. G. P. Boss, Mrs. Max E. Kaiser, Mrs. D. A. Murphy, Mrs. J. P. Fluhrer, Mrs. A. E. Lee and Mrs. J. W. Bee-man.

Louis Valencia will act as toastmaster. George Zavislan will lead group singing. Special music will be played by Dal Derouin and Skippy Shomuch. Lloyd Waller, secretary of the YMCA Board of Managers, will give a short talk. Movies will add to the entertainment.

Storkatorials

Parents who take their new babies home from Torrance Memorial Hospital before Wednesday at noon may call The Herald office so that birth information may be carried as soon as possible.

Among births to parents of Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City and other nearby areas in Torrance Memorial hospital last week were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berrier, 2151 Middlebrook Road, a son, born Nov. 21 at 6:06 p.m.
Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lucas, 1638 W. 208th street, a son, born Nov. 19 at 7:26 p.m.

Regular meeting of the Board of Education will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the administrative offices. The meeting was postponed from last week in order that school officials could attend a trustee meeting last Tuesday at San Marino.

Hunting Mishaps Decrease

"Hunting accidents have been below average in California this year. Let's keep it that way by unloading guns when not hunting and treating every gun as if it were loaded." — Fred P. Cronmiller, regional chief of wildlife management, U. S. Forest Service.
