Carnival King and Queen to Reign in Waleria

A contest to name the king and queen of the Halloween Carnival in Waleria is creating considerable interest in that community.

Sponsored by the Waleria Parent-Teacher Association, the contest is open to children up to and including five years of age. Entries are being accepted by Mrs. Berle Conner, chairman of the contest, and several places of business in Waleria.

Following the crowning ceremonies Monday afternoon, October 31, the king and queen will lead the costume parade at 4 o'clock and reign over the entire carnival.

Tickets are now on sale for a masquerade ball at the Waleria Recreation Center Saturday evening, October 29, Square and round dancing will be featured and the affair will be a lot more fun if everyone comes in costume. A three-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the evening's entertainment. Sandwiches and coffee will be served.

On Monday night, October 31, there will be a carnival for children and adults. This is the place where the whole family can come for a full evening of fun, food and frolic. There will be food booths where sandwiches, salad, hot dogs, coffee and soft drinks will be served. There will be a country store where housewives may enter their cakes, pies, cookies, and all sorts of handwork. Judges will award ribbons and then everything will be sold at auction. There will be a handiwork booth where one may do Christmas shopping, candy booth, fish ponds, and bronc ride. There will be an "all-states" booth where one may purchase a package with the postmark of his home state.

"The PTA stands for and works for child welfare and the good of children everywhere. Remember by attending these PTA affairs you are not only giving yourself a lot of fun but you are giving your children good Halloween entertainment."
