

Anniversary Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Dean of 2414 Pacific Coast Highway, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Friday evening with an intimate dinner party in their home.

Chrysanthemums in fall shades formed the attractive centerpiece for the dining-table set for the celebrants' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Agapito, Jr.; another daughter and son, Miss Karen, and Jack, the latter home for the week end from University of California at Santa Barbara, and his guest, Miss Diane Fowler of Santa Barbara. The couple's other son, Pfc. Leiland W., stationed at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D.C., sent greetings.

Long Beach Ceremony to Unite Couple

Miss Mary Ellen Culbertson Vash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Vash of 25936 Narbonne avenue, will exchange wedding vows with Troy Hale of WALTERIA Friday, November 4, at 8 o'clock in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach.

The ceremony will be witnessed by only the immediate families of the couple and a reception at the chapel will follow. Rev. Johnson Calhoun of Long Beach will officiate.

Miss Vash will wear a blue satin afternoon dress for the ceremony and attending her will be "her" sister, Miss Virginia Vash, in a golden brown crepe dress. Yellow roses have been chosen for the bride's bouquet and her attendant will carry a spray of gardenias.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hale of WALTERIA, will be attended by Joy Hale, his brother.

A reception has been planned for the many friends of the popular couple for Saturday throughout the afternoon hours at their apartment at 1908 W. 263rd street with an open invitation extended to all who wish to offer their best wishes.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and was later enrolled at Compton College. She is a member of Lomita Bethel No. 137, Job's Daughters. Mr. Hale attended Narbonne High School and El Camino College.

GRANDMOTHER VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of 1852 Reynosa Drive are entertaining as their house guest her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Crowther of Manassa, Colo.

HALLOWEEN FUN . . . Bizarre costumes featured the Portuguese Bend Club Halloween party October 29. Mrs. Frank Baden dressed as an old ghost, and Frank Baden, Rolling Hills, costumed as Superman, chat on the dance floor with Mrs. Fisher, depicting Mary Martin in her "I'm Going to Wash that Man Right Out of my Hair" number from "South Pacific," and George Fisher, Portuguese Bend, who attended the party as a smartly dressed ship's captain who forgot to wear trousers.

PROJECT POPULARITY REVIEWED BY JUNIORS

Torrance Junior Woman's Club held a regular board meeting Tuesday, October 25, at the home of Mrs. Albert Fogner, 1508 Greshaw boulevard. After the discussion period, delicious refreshments were served. Those attending were Mesdames H. P. Jensen, R. C. Morton, W. C. Boswell Jr., E. E. Clayton, Merle Richardson, William Lightenber and a senior advisor, Mrs. John Oursler.

Diminishing parties have been most successful under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. E. Clayton, junior past president. In addition to swelling the club treasury, the parties have afforded the members and their guests much enjoyment. This is the way the parties are handled:

Each club member entertains eight guests, each of whom gives a party inviting four, who may be others than club members. It was decided, Canasta parties have been most popular among club hostesses.

Regular monthly business meeting will be held Wednesday evening in the clubhouse preceded by a potluck supper to be served under the direction of Miss Beverly Whitney, hostess for the evening.

YOUTH CHOIR TO SING CONCERT SUNDAY NIGHT

The Youth Choir, sponsored by the women of First Lutheran Church, will present its first fall concert at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening at Torrance First Baptist Church. The choir is composed of boys and girls ranging from 9 to 14 years of age.

The program to be presented under the direction of Mrs. Paul Wenske, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Bay, follows:

"Worship the King" (Wilson); "The Lord's Prayer" (Gounod); "Glory to the King of Kings" (Thompson); "Allelujah" (Mozart); "Christ is Risen" (adapted from Handel's "Messiah"); "Spirit of Youth" (Testa); "Fight for Freedom" (Elaine); "Send Out Thy Light" (Gounod); "Trust in the Lord" (Handel); "The Holy City" (Adams).

several gospel hymns sung in parts will augment the presentation, and the program will be concluded with the singing of Christmas Carols. The public is most cordially invited to attend this youth program.

Civic Symphony Presents Season's First Concert

Elyse Aehle will direct the Civic Symphony Orchestra in a concert featuring the works of Bach, Brahms, Beethoven, and other favorites when she takes the podium at 8:30 Sunday evening in Redondo Union High School auditorium.

Orchestra and director take this opportunity to express their gratitude and appreciation to their sponsors and many civic leaders whose faith and efforts have made possible this third symphony season of free concerts for residents of this area.

The program, varied in mood and content, follows: First Symphony of Beethoven (Opus 21, in C); Bach's Chorale, "Sheep Shall Safely Graze" and Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 5 (Brahms).

James McGray will play an arrangement of Rubenstein's "Romance" and Kay McWilliams, soprano soloist, will sing an aria from "Carmen" to the accompaniment of harps and piano.

Club Party Is Highlighted by Costumes

Hilarious costumes ranging from Superman to the devil and jailbirds to Beauty and the Beast featured the annual Portuguese Bend Club Halloween party Saturday night.

More than 120 bizarrely dressed club members attended. The clubhouse was decorated with pumpkin jack-o-lanterns, corn stalks, hay and spooky silhouettes. Music for the dinner dance was played by Frank Glasgow and his orchestra.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson of Hawthorne won prizes for the best costumes. The couple depicted Beauty and the Beast. Dr. Anderson was the "beauty" and Mrs. Anderson the "beast."

Honorable mentions included Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Caughlin of San Pedro who came as a Dutch boy and girl; Frank Baden of Rolling Hills who came as Superman, replete with four-foot broad shoulders; Mrs. Geo. Fisher, Portuguese Bend, who, with soap flakes at hand, came as Mary Martin in her "I'm Going to Wash that Man Right Out of My Hair" number from "South Pacific"; and Dr. E. D. Moxley of Manhattan Beach, dressed as the devil.

The Halloween party was one of the Club's regular last-Saturday-of-the-month affairs.

Bazaar to Attract Many Tomorrow

Final preparations are being made by members of the Women's Society for Christian Service of Wayside Chapel for the annual pre-holiday bazaar Friday, November 4, at the church.
