

AWARD WINNERS... Arline (Tootie) Kastrop and her sister, Betty Ann dressed in cowgirl costumes as they appeared in a Western Day celebration at Palm Springs. Tootie, baton and acrobatics pupil of Bettie Thomas Studios, received first award in single twirling, competing with eight other units of approximately 100 each, including college and high school groups. Betty Ann represented the accordionist players at the celebration.

PARTICIPATE IN '49-er CONTEST

The entire group wore cowboy costumes to follow the theme of the event. The banner was carried by Cowboys Tad Dale and Lawrence Gremminger, and the flags were carried by Patricia Larson and Patricia King. Among the baton twirlers, in addition to Tootie Kastrop, were Yolanda Francis, Judy Wall, Louise Clouse, Mary Beth Ady, Marsha Maddock, and Patty Dunmyer.

World Fellowship Week To Be Marked By Dinner

Mrs. George Armacost, wife of the president of Redlands University, and in her own right president of the Baptist Convention of Southern California and a member of the board of directors of the YWCA and chairman of their World Fellowship Committee, will give the address at the YWCA World Fellowship dinner in Torrance Woman's Clubhouse Wednesday evening, November 16.

A short program of Mexican folk dances will be presented by arrangement with Miss Marquita Crute, Pueblo youth director and Ted Meier will lead group singing of international folk songs.

YOUTHFUL VOCALIST

Carole Ann, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Stevenson of 1344 W. 216th street, made her fourth radio appearance Monday evening over Radio Station KFOX with Bettie Thomas' Torrance Accordionettes.

Great-Grandmother

Mrs. Anna Hamman became a great-grandmother this past month with the birth of a daughter to her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert McNaughton of Hamilton, Ont. She also became a grandmother again with the birth of a sixth child, Michael, to her daughter, Mrs. Howard McNaughton (Marguerite Hamman) of Torrance. Michael is uncle to the new baby girl, but is the younger by a few weeks.

'Kiddie Karnival' Set By Elementary PTA 5th

On November 5, from 5 to 9 p.m. at the Torrance Elementary School, Johnny Strong will present his Kiddie Karnival for a general fund raising event, to benefit Child Welfare, for Torrance Elementary P.T.A. There will be all kinds of booths and shows, and plenty of food. From 5 to 6:30 a spaghetti line Clouse, Dennis and Terry Coil, Rosemary Rocha, Junior Moniz, Shirley Dean Merritt, Georlene Hodges, Doylene Stein, Nicky Nichols, Jackie Wall, Joyce Taylor, Tommy Aliehin, Janice Robin, Gail, and Bettie Thomas.

The Accordionettes left the studio on a chartered bus at 6:00 a. m. Saturday morning for the parade. They were guests at the barbecue and then enjoyed a swim in the desert swimming pool. The bus returned to the Torrance studio at 9:00 p. m. that evening.

Delphians' Meeting Is Scheduled

Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphian Society will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Torrance Library lecture room. Mrs. Don H. Hyde, president, will conduct the business meeting and Mrs. B. T. Whitney will serve as seminar leader for Program 7.

Objective of the study group meeting is "To Examine the motives which prompt human behavior and thereby determine the kind of life each of us lives." Speakers and their topics follow:

"Mrs. Dean L. Sears, 'The Basis of Motivation'; Mrs. D. W. Quigley, 'Handling our Conflicts'; Mrs. Hartley E. Carr, 'Withdrawal'; and Mrs. Don H. Hyde, 'Rationalization and Unresolved Conflicts.'"

Questions also have been assigned to other members for their consideration, including Misses Fred A. Lincoln, W. H. Martin, Burney Morris, Harry L. Burkholder, and Von M. Bergen. I have discovered the fountain of youth. The secret is simple. Never let your brain grow inactive, and you will keep young forever. —CLEMENCEAU.
