

CHURCH SERVICE IS CONDUCTED BY WSCS

Women's Society of Christian Service of Torrance First Methodist Church in a new departure took entire charge of morning worship Sunday.

Ushers' duties were assumed by Mesdames Hazelwood, Atwood, Speck, and Chambers.

The choir director and organist, Vernon Robinson, relinquished his post to Mrs. Norma Dobrick and Miss Harriet Bender. The invocation and scripture readings were given by Mmes. VanDeventer, Bender and Gray.

Mrs. A. E. Palmer, president of the WSCS, explained the scope and aims of the organization and presented each member of her executive board.

Mrs. C. E. Miller, a fully ordained elder of the Methodist Church at large, made a pleasing picture in her scholar's gown as she delivered a timely and telling sermon on, "Family Life Today" to a capacity audience.

VARIED PROGRAM IS CALENDARED BY PTA

Plans for the Room Mothers school a complete success.

Tea to be held November 15, in St. Andrews Parish House, were discussed at the board meeting of the Halldale PTA Friday. A white elephant bazaar party will highlight the afternoon's entertainment.

A dog show, featuring "Daisy" the dog of "Dagwood and Blondie" fame will be held at the school November 18, 10:00 a. m. Admission will be 14 cent for children and 25 cents for adults.

Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal, extended a vote of thanks to the room mothers for their wonderful assistance in making the Halloween festivities at the school a complete success.

Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president announced that the newspaper drive will be held Wednesday, November 16.

The fathers will be guests of honor at the night meeting of the Halldale P.T.A. to be held Thursday, November 10, 7:30 o'clock at the school.

Danny Martin, Shirley Deer, Mrs. M. D. Heibert, and Mr. H. B. Russell will participate in a discussion entitled "Home and School Cooperation." Mrs. Jeanne Rentwood will act as moderator for the debate.

There will be a nursery for the children.

Parade, Amateur Show Enjoyable At Halldale

Halldale Avenue School was visited by witches, goblins, ghosts, and skeletons at the Halloween parade and amateur show held last Monday.

Drum majorettes Ola Lock, Carol Kail, Joyce Showalter, Judy Wolf, Derene Jo' Elliott, Gloria Kleinhaus, Vicky Hippik, Patsy Beckett, Emma Wigginton, Faye Livermore, and Marquita Davies opened the program with a drill formation. Following this the children of the school participated in the Halloween parade. Prizes for the prettiest, ugliest, funniest, and most original costumes then were awarded to winners in the primary, intermediate, and upper grade groups.

Master of ceremonies Danny Martin, introduced the acts in the amateur show. The program, under the supervision of Mrs. Lillian Barr, included a clown dance by Tracy Dale, a song by Suzanne Lundeen, accordion music by Gloria Wood, Shirley Merritt, and Terry Coil; a tap dance by Lawrence Gremminger and Tracy Dale, a violin trio consisting of Fatty McNeese, Jackie Krown, and Donald Kelley. Steel guitars were played by Beverly Klinehans and Jack Schioli, a Hawaiian dance by Shirley Deer, a saxophone solo by Ralph Cane, a song by Mrs. Eileen Kime, a dance by Penny LeMont, an adagio dance by Marquita Davies, and Tracy Dale, and trick riding by Charles Lamkins, and Danny Hooker.

A group of tumblers included Bonia Mooneyham, Jackie Krown, Patty McNeese, Joan Vachalek, Sharon Tibbs, Celeste Vogel, Sharon Hutton, Faye Livermore, Bell Robinson, and Roseanna Kennedy, and a square dance was performed by Robert Lewis, Charles Howes, Bonnie Holloway, Dean Baker, Camille Mottet, John Desjagne, Beverly Kleinhaus, Dennis Eddwards, Shirley Merritt, Jackie Ventre, David Lenton, Kathleen White, Gary Meedham, Susan Dukeman, Jack Schioli, and Jerry Baarsch. A duet, sung by Mrs. Eileen Kime, and Shirley Deer, concluded the festivities.

At the close of the show luncheon, prepared by the Halldale PTA was served.

Card Party, Is Planned

Knights of Columbus will sponsor a public card party at 8 o'clock Wednesday, November 16, in VFW Hall, 417 W. 131st street, Hawthorne.

Customary games will be played and refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Rebekah District Deputy President Olive Veatch made her official visit Friday at Compton. A large number of trailers from Trio Rebekah lodge were among the guests.

MICHIGAN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scoby of Crosshatch Crest have been entertaining as their house guests for the past six weeks his mother, Mrs. Louis Scoby and his grandmother, Mrs. A. Scoby, of Lansing, Mich. The ladies enjoyed trips to Knotts Berry Farm and other points of interest during their visit.

ON BUSINESS TRIP

Business in Salt Lake City and Provo, Utah, last weekend claimed the attention of Robert R. Williams of 1852 Reynosa Drive. Williams took time out on Saturday, however, to attend the Utah State Aggies vs. BYU football game in the afternoon.

Only the fool and the very young expect happiness. The wise merely hope to be interested, at least not to be bored, in their passage through this world. Nothing is so interesting as love and grief, and the one involves the other.
