Customers' Corner

Why will food prices go up if the anti-trust lawyers win their suit to put A&P out of business? Here is just one of a number of reasons: We manufacture many of the quality foods we sell in our stores, such as Bokar, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock coffees, Ann Page foods, White House milk, and many others. Because this saves us money we are able to pass along these savings to our customers in the form of lower prices. The anti-trust lawyers have asked the court to order us to get rid of our manufacturing facilities, which would put an end to all these savings. Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in putting A&P out of business you will find your food bill is higher.

Canary Club Announces Show Dates

The Centinella Valley Roller Canary Club will hold its bird show this year November 16-20 at Carpenter's Hall, 1010 Hyde Park boulevard, Inglewood. This will mark the 14th annual song contest for roller canaries. Howard Mercer of 25128 Oak street, Lomita, is show manager; Mrs. Leon T. Crowther, also of Lomita, is in charge of decorations and Jim McFadden will judge the canaries' songs. Mr. Mercer states that admission will be free and there will be ample of parking space.

Officers Are Selected by Mothers Club

Election of officers was the principal business transacted at the monthly meeting of Nativity Mothers Club held in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Officers and members of the Mothers Club enjoyed a delicious informal luncheon preceding the meeting. Named to serve during the new term were: Mrs. Foster Kelly, president; Mrs. Cleon Richmond, vice-president; Mrs. Melvin J. Duehring, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas H. Herrin, treasurer. Next meeting, on Friday, December 2, will feature installation of officers and announcement of plans for the new year.

MEATS ADD ZEST TO SANDWICH SPREADS

Fall spells back to school and likewise back to lunch box preparation for many homemakers. Sandwiches have long been the handy main fare of lunchboxes and as home meals must be ever changing so must sandwich fillings to spur lunch time interest. A simple lesson in plump and tasty sandwich filling variety might well start with bacon. This crisp meat when cooked and chopped provides desirable crunchiness and is delightfully combined with sliced olives and cream cheese; peanut butter and pickle relish; baked beans, cabbage and mayonnaise; hard-cooked eggs and chili sauce; mashed banana; peanut butter or tart jelly. Also there are ideal bread and filling combinations such as chopped ham, celery and mayonnaise spread between slices of raisin bread. Chopped corn beef units with minced onion, mustard and mayonnaise on rye bread; ground cooked liver with finely chopped carrot, mayonnaise on whole wheat bread. Other combinations include luncheon meat chopped with American cheese or deviled ham, sliced hard-cooked egg and mayonnaise spread on enriched white bread, potato bread or any of the tasty quick breads.

PURELY DELIBERATE . . . Any resemblance between this girl's outfit and her beau's sport togs is purely deliberate—for sentimental as well as practical reasons. The odd jacket is a distaff version of his favorite wool tweed, and the skirt, of similar material, will keep in fashion stride with his slacks.
