Jr. Statesmen Attend Meet

Eight members of Torrance High School Conference Junior Statesmen of America recently attended a 3-day State convention at Hayward.
 The Torrance group joined 37 other students from the Los Angeles area, traveling on the S. P. "Daylight".
 A Saturday afternoon tour of San Francisco was an enjoyable highlight of the trip.
 Attending the formal banquet and Governor's Ball were about 300 students, from all over the State.
 Torrance people attending were David Mario, Nalbro Miller, Jo Ann Snodgrass, Bernice Buchanan, Jeanne Whitten, Wallace Fullmer, Lairy Clark, Norman Stock, and Edward A Reynolds, teacher-sponsor.

Hunt Child Tempter
 Police were alerted this week to be on the lookout for a man, who, according to residents on Roslin avenue, has been offering children of Perry School candy if they "would go for a ride in his car."

Reporter Finds 'Nudes' Story in Latest Edition

Arrival of a special edition at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Omohundro, 1308 Madrid avenue, is being celebrated this week.
 Father Omohundro is the reporter for the Long Beach Press Telegram in the South Bay area.
 The edition is titled Patricia Ann and weighed six pounds. It ounces upon delivery at the Seaside Hospital in Long Beach last Wednesday.

Official formation of the Lomita Chamber of Commerce will take place next Wednesday night (Nov. 30), marking the end of the thriving Lomita Business Association.
 Secretary Mrs. Joseph Bader announced today that the signing of the incorporation papers will be accomplished at the regular monthly meeting of LBA in the home of President Glenn Keith.

All But Two Divisions Exceed Quota in Current Chest Drive

All divisions except two in the Torrance Community Chest campaign have exceeded their quotas, reported yesterday.
 Divisions over the top, their chairmen, amounts raised, and percentages are: Advanced Gifts, Reed Parkin, $865.00, 144 per cent; Commerce and Industry A, Dean L. Sears, $3,364.62, 140 per cent; Commerce and Industry B, Russell Lund and William Zoeller, $944.00, 118 per cent; Residential, Mrs. Albert Ewalt, $1,571.87, 112 per cent.
 The Major Commerce and Industry Division which is responsible for $10,300 of the goal of $17,000, has raised only $5,205.00 to date which is 50.5 per cent of the quota. This division is being handled by a special committee of representatives of big business in the Los Angeles area, Levy explained, and not by local leadership.
 The other low division is Small Business of which B. T. Whitney is chairman, which has reported $882.36, or 59 per cent of quota.
 Totals for Torrance, including

The Los Angeles City Housing Authority is moving its central applications office which serves Normont Terrace from the former location on Clarence street to 224 North Main street, opposite the City Hall. It was announced today by Executive Director Howard L. Holtzendorff.

Radio's Famous 'Johnny' Slated To Appear Here

"Johnny"—possessor of the voice that sounds the familiar "Call for Philip Morris" will make a guest appearance at McCown's Torrance Drug Store Tuesday, November 22 between 3 and 5 p.m., according to Harry Petro, general manager of the six McCown stores.
 Louis Guenzi, manager of the Torrance store, said that all Philip Morris customers who purchase cigarettes during visit of radio's famous page-boy will receive a gift which will be autographed by "Johnny".
 The midget, now in his 17th year with Philip Morris, is currently sounding his famous call on three radio shows—"Horace Heidt's Program," "This Is Your Life," and "Ladies Be Seated."
 It is claimed that the little man is the only living trademark.
 Wes Battersea, star of CBS radio and television shows will serve as master of ceremonies for the festivity at the local drug store.
TEA CONSUMPTION
 Last year the average American consumed a half pound of tea.

Parking...

 Chamber of Commerce pointed out.
 One step to ease the problem—that of having merchants and their employees park away from the busy business district streets—has already been taken. Walker declared. Too, many shoppers are using the lot at the corner of El Prado and Cravens avenue.
 How to cope with other motorists-shoppers who in increasing numbers are finding parking difficult, is the recently formed parking committee's problem.
