

Hostess to Pinochle Club

Mrs. John McCormick was hostess to the Pinochle Club at her home, 2319 W. 250th street, Monday afternoon. Tables were arranged for the card games following a delightful dessert luncheon and playing were Mesdames Cordie White, Maude Jensen, Mary Baker, Della Moon, Rosy Sheppard, Margaret Stavens, Rose Emmons and the hostess.

Halldale Avenue Pupils Present Demonstrations

Halldale Avenue School was honored Friday, December 2, by the presence of Mrs. Myra Nelson, assistant superintendent for the South District of Los Angeles, her staff of Supervisors, and 26 principals of schools in the Harbor District, at a demonstration in music, both instrumental and vocal, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams, music teacher.

A demonstration in reading for third and fourth grade teachers was held Tuesday, the rooms of Mrs. Geraldine White, Mrs. Phyllis Quayle, Mrs. Margaret Jensen, and Mrs. Wilma Clear taking part in the demonstration. Mrs. Lillian Biggins' room will participate in a third demonstration in construction and woodwork which will take place tomorrow for the primary teachers in the Harbor District.

Lutheran Circle in Yule Plans

The regular meetings of the Rebekah and Priscilla Circles will not be resumed until January. The Victory Circle is planning a Christmas dinner for this month's meeting.

Write down the advice of him who loves you, though you like it not at present.

DECORATIVE, TOO . . . Pretty Eleanor Parker, Warner Bros. star, points out that Christmas Seals make attractive decorations for holiday packages as well as for mail. Funds from the sale of the colorful Seals will be used by the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the Los Angeles Heart Association to fight tuberculosis, heart disease and rheumatic fever. Mrs. Albert Dumont is chairman for the Torrance campaign.

Christian Church Ladies Council Tell Activities

Members and friends of the Woman's Christian Fellowship of the Christian Church Tuesday morning enjoyed their Christmas party, a breakfast at the church. Around tables, placed in the shape of a Christmas tree, and beautifully decorated with poinsettias, a delicious breakfast was enjoyed, served by the young matrons of the church.

Mrs. Elva Howell, president, conducted a short business meeting with various chairmen reporting progress of their work. Mrs. Kenneth Beight, family life chairman announced the Bible school and Church Christmas program December 18 at 7:30 at the church.

Mrs. Albert Pitzer, stewardship chairman, gave a short message on the "Gift Without the Giver Is Bare," and we should give our time, talent, and treasure this Christmas season. With this thought, the membership is asked to place a gift on the Church Christmas tree in the sanctuary of the church, toward the "Crusade" fund, along with the regular offering for the San Gabriel Old Peoples' Home, which the Christian Churches in Southern California sponsor.

Devotional Chairman Mrs. Cecil England, brought the devotions, entitled "Stars in our every day lives: Humility, Faith, Purity, and Love."

Members of the well-known Christmas carols; Martin Luther's home where he wrote "Away in the Manger"—A minstrel singing the Austrian hymn "Silent Night" and the hymn of the Holy Land, "We Three Kings." Mrs. Kenneth Beight was narrator.

A Crusade dinner was announced for Sunday, December 11, to be served immediately after morning worship.

Normont PTA to Celebrate Christmas

Normont social hall will be the setting for the Christmas meeting of Normont PTA Thursday, December 15 beginning at 1 p.m.

The entire student body will take part in several ways in the afternoon program. Tableaux, skits and community singing will be carried out in the Christmas theme with the pledge of allegiance and inspirational message of the day in charge of the sixth grade students.

The students will receive their holiday treat during the afternoon and J. Wear Pearson, principal, will read the Bill of Rights.
