

Jeanne Hamilton Inducted As Lomita Bethel Queen

Miss Jeanne Hamilton was seated as Honored Queen of Lomita Bethel 137, International Order of Job's Daughters, Saturday night before a capacity audience in the Masonic Temple in Torrance.

Miss Hamilton succeeds Miss Sharon Lang. Master of ceremonies was Thomas S. Cadwell, past worshipful master of Lomita Lodge 644 and escorts were Mrs. Ruby Francis, Bethel guardian, and Michael Hickey, Bethel associate guardian.

During the ceremonies the lovely voice of Miss Elsie Mac Church was heard in two selections, "There Were Shepherds" and "Cantique de Noel." Her accompanist was Miss Amy Bourquin.

Inducted into their respective offices to support their new queen were Janet Hood, senior princess; Edna Sandstrom, junior princess; Dorothy Whippo, guide; Mary Pedersen, marshal; Marilyn Walker, senior custodian; Clarence Mann, junior custodian; Sandra Rice, inner guard; Rox Ann Johnson, outer guard; Margaret Shields, recorder; Marilyn Spaan, chaplain; Paula Francis, treasurer; Kay Francis, musician; Mari Linn Johnson, librarian; Dotti Schwitzer, Christine Nelson, Virginia Headly, Colleen McGinnis, Vera Jeter, messengers.

Installing officers were Sharon Lang, retiring queen; L'Ceia Brunskill, guide; Sue Madison, marshal; Lois MacPhail, chaplain; Jacqueline Stricker, recorder; Ellen Turpmund, musician; Maxine Schildnever, senior custodian; Leona Beck, junior custodian; Deane Watkins, Bible bearer; Joan Pedersen, flag bearer; Robert Christalaw, jewel bearer. Hostesses were Joan Bell and Marilyn Rearden and ushers, Jack Watkins, and Michael Day.

The Bethel choir includes Jeraldine Boring, Evelyn Bohne, Una Mae Brunskill, Bonnie Bryan, Lo Ann Durant, Nancy Eymann, Carol Franklin, Theano Peterson, Carolyn Powers, Jane Turman, Janice Woodman, Shirley Wish, Eleanor

Carolers to Serenade in Waltheria

Pandora Club members of Waltheria will take the opportunity of en-joying a hayride at the same time. The club is anxious to have others join in this traditional program of good cheer for shut-ins and others in the community.

WSCS Board Entertains

The executive board of Torrance WSCS of First Methodist Church was hostess to the women of the church at a Christmas party held Thursday afternoon.

A gift exchange table was piled high with prettily wrapped packages and a second table held gifts of games, beads, and jewelry for Navajo children at Farmington, Arizona.

The Rev. Mr. Miller, pastor, conducted devotionals, stressing keeping Christ as the center of Christmas. After carol singing by the audience, Mrs. A. E. Palmer, president, announced the skit to be presented, based on Van Dyke's "The Other Wise Man." Participating were Mes- dames Robinette, Hiebert, Gray, Bender, and Van Deventer. A social hour was enjoyed over the teacups, with Mrs. John and Mrs. Earl Robinette pouring. The lace-covered table and mantels decorated in gay holiday colors, created a festive setting for the happy occasion.

Fern Avenue PTA Meeting Set Tonight

Because of space limitations Fern Avenue School will be holding individual room parties and programs during this week instead of a general auditorium program. Each class will express its own idea; some will have a Christmas tree with gift exchanges and some will give programs or plays with the pupils dramatizing the Christmas story. The students will invite parents and friends to attend.

Regular PTA meeting will be held at 7:30 this evening in the school auditorium. Following the business session, music will be furnished by Lloyd Jones, of the music department, who will lead the Girls Glee Club of the 6th and 7th grades. Entertainment will be directed by Mrs. Joan Verdell's kindergartners. All parents are urged to attend. A playroom has been arranged for the younger children. Refreshments will be served by first grade room mothers.

Announce Son's Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Bowen of 1008 Sierra Place, owners of Solma Cleaners, are the proud parents of their first son, Paul Edward, born December 9 at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Other children of the popular couple are Gloria, 9 and two and a half-year-old Ann. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson of Yankton, S. D.
