KATHIE CURTISS

Young Artist to Appear in Recital 18th

Kathie Curtiss, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtiss of 1321 Engracia avenue, will be one of the three talented soloists to be featured at the piano recital to be given Sunday, December 18, by Colette Nance's junior students.

Other pupils appearing on the program will be Judy Clark, Sandra Snow, Loretta Robison, Rosemary Ryan, Lynne McRae, and Dana Tenty.

Party Plans to Feature Adult Class

The Consumer Education class, sponsored by Lomita Elementary PTA, will meet tomorrow for a Christmas party and regular session in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Lathan, 1953 W. 253rd street.

Brunch will be served and everyone is expected to take a 25-cent gift for exchange. —Mrs. Alpha Stump, instructor, will conduct the meeting.

Holiday Party Tonight to Highlight Club Meeting

Extensive plans are being carried out to make this evening's Christmas meeting of the Lomita Fuchsia Club one of the finest in the history of the organization.

A Christmas tree aglow with lights and decorations will greet the members and their guests as they arrive at the social hall of the Lomita Presbyterian Church at 7:30 o'clock.

A special invitation is being extended to the members and former members to be present for the exchange of gifts and to hear the speaker who will address the club on "Roses for the Spring Garden."

Mrs. J. Bader, program chairman, will introduce the speaker, Homer Green, of Whittier, who will follow his talk by the showing of the new motion pictures of the Richmond Rose Gardens. His talk will familiarize those who hear it with the new varieties of roses to be available for spring planting. Mr. Green also will discuss new methods in rose culture.

The talk will be followed by the annual Christmas party and the serving of appropriate holiday refreshments with Mrs. A. C. Turner and Mrs. C. E. Carlstens presiding at the silver service.

Those planning to attend are reminded to take a package wrapped for the gift exchange, not to exceed 75 cents in value.

Mrs. Markley Oracle of Delnora Camp

Florence Markley's Thursday night was elected oracle of Delnora Camp No. 10137, Royal Neighbors, succeeding Rowena Airey.

With Mrs. Airey presiding the following officers also were elected to support the new presiding officer: May Perry, vice oracle; Rowena Airey, past oracle; Estelle Cool, chancellor; Cecile Goheen, recorder; Bertha Meyers, receiver; Betty Winteer, marshal; Carl Ericsson, assistant marshal; Josephine Henby, inner sentinel, and Mary Smith, outer sentinel.

Six new members were obligated during the meeting which was preceded by a delicious spaghetti dinner served by members of the defeated membership team with Betty Winteer, captain, in charge.

Yuletide Party For Brownies

The doors were thrown wide open Friday at the Dan Rosenthal home, 26216 Monte Vista avenue, arranged for members of Brownie Troop 1096 for the annual Christmas party Friday.

Investiture ceremonies were held for two new members, Sherry and Carol Ann Bireher, with Mrs. J. Richards in charge of the lovely candle-light rite. This was followed by the presentation of one-year pennants to Gloria Thorpe, Marcia Renick, Anita Jo Friedrichs, Sandra Richards, Jackie Poole, Joan Rosenthal, and Jeannie Carter.

A group of games had been arranged for the troop members who later gathered around the decorated Christmas tree for an exchange of gifts.

At this, the last meeting for the Brownies for the year 1949, announcement was made that the next meeting would be at the home of Mrs. Grace Thorpe on January 13.

Andersens Are Honored with Dinner Party

The 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, owners of the Arctic Salvage Company and residents of Lomita for the past 29 years, was the incentive for a dinner party at the Oak street home of Mrs. Lena Robinson Friday evening.

Turkey and all the trimmings and a beautiful cake decorated in silver and white were served.

Gifts appropriate for the occasion were opened by the honored couple. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larsen, Mrs. H. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christensen, Jeanne and Donald Christensen of Lomita and Mrs. Marjorie Lemond of Long Beach.
