

'Salad' Bowls Headline Big Football Climax for 1949

Football's still in the air these days, even as the snow flurries race over many gridirons—but they're going to be serving the roasted pigskins up in "Bowls" come the next few weeks.

First of the "aw Durrs" will be the North South Shrine game at Miami, Fla., next Monday, December 26, then comes a choice of "Salad" or "Soup" with the Raisin Bowl game at Fresno, the Blue-and-Gray Bowl at Montgomery, Ala., or the East-West Shrine game at San Francisco's Kezar Stadium on Saturday, December 31.

The real "chitray" prime ribs of beef, no less, comes on Monday, Jan. 2, with the daddy of 'em all, the Rose Bowl game of U. of California vs. Ohio State U. heading the stampede.

Here's the lineup:

Dec. 26 North-South Shrine, Miami, Fla.—Two all-star teams of college players.

Dec. 27 East-West Shrine, San Francisco—Two all-star teams of college players.

Dec. 31 Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.—Santa Clara (7-2-1) vs. Kentucky (9-2-0). Sun Bowl, El Paso, Texas—George Mason (Washington, D.C.) 5-4-0 vs. Texas Western (7-2-1). Clear Bowl, Tampa, Fla.—Wofford (11-0-0) vs. Florida State (8-1-0). Pineapple Bowl, Honolulu—Stanford (6-3-1) vs. Hawaii (8-2-0). Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla.—Maryland (7-1-0) vs. Missouri (7-3-0). Tangerine Bowl, Orlando, Fla.—Emory and Henry (10-0-0) vs. St. Vincent (Pa.) (9-0-0). Oleander Bowl, Galveston, Texas—McMurry (Texas) 7-2-1 vs. Missouri Valley (8-2-0). Salad Bowl, Phoenix, Ariz.—Arizona State (Tempe) (9-2-0) vs. Xavier

Lovely Crew Scores First Victory, 33-13

With all five members sharing scoring honors, Lovelady Hardware broke in the City Wednesday night league win column by downing the Waleria Business Association 33-13. For the Walerians, the game was the first loss to be suffered in league play.

In other basketball games played by the Wednesday league on the local high school hardwood, the Harbor Hospital Doctors outscored the Greater Torrance Market quintet, 31-18. Doc Bowman was high point man with 19 markers thrown from his forward slot.

Columbia Steel kept its record unblemished by downing the Redondo Sea Food Cafe, 30-24.

Vanderpool Wins Torrance Sports Boosters Award

V. T. "Van" Vanderpool, popular local sports enthusiast, received a multiple-duty wrist watch, the Torrance Sports Boosters award, following the touchball finals staged by the city and the Y.M.C.A. at the high school stadium Friday night.

In making the award for the Boosters, John Melville told of Vanderpool's "sincere interest, loyalty and sacrifice" in working with boys of Torrance through the Y.M.C.A.

Among Van's activities during the past year on a purely voluntary basis has been leadership in a Gra-Y Club, instruction of Y.M.C.A. softball teams, and direction of play periods.

He also spent days at the regular Y.M.C.A. mountain camp assisting with special events; assisted with supervision of "Y" boys on tours to San Diego and Mexico; transported groups on swims and outings and coached a team during the touchball season.

According to the Sports Boosters' citation, Vanderpool "is to be commended for the high ideals he has taught the boys and assisting their growth in spirit, mind and body."

Vanderpool, who is assistant superintendent at the Mead Johnson Co. here, lives at 1015 Anapola avenue.

Graff, Olson Hot Scorers In City Loop

Bob Graff, aggressive forward for the Prodan-Foote quintet in the City Basketball League, bids fair to steal high scoring honors this season. Bob has bucketed 48 points in two games for an average of 24 points per contest.

Dude Olson of National Supply has more points to his credit than does Graff, 54, but has played in three league games thus far. Olson sports an average of 18 points per game.

In the show position in the Friday night league scoring race is Al Widner, Torrance Merchants, with 47 points in three games.

In the Wednesday night league, Fred Bowman of the Harbor Hospital Doctors, leads with 28 points; Lovelady Hardware's Frank Perkins is second with 22 markers; Ralph Croshaw of Waleria is third with 20.

San Pedro Five Hits 100 High

There just seems to be no stopping that San Pedro High hoop juggernaut. Bob Tabing's boys, led by M. H. McGilvery at center, scouted two more Eastern Marine League rivals before calling time out for the Christmas Holidays last weekend.

They beat South Gate, 96-38, and then swamped Riss, 100-46, as McGilvery poured in 31 and 34 points, respectively.

Banning lost to Narbonne, 41-29, and as a result dropped almost out of the picture in the fight for second place.

Play will be resumed in the Eastern Marine League after the New Year.

Warrior Cagers Open League Play Against Harbor J. C. on Jan 6

Coach John Morrow's El Camino basketball crew will open league play January 6 against Harbor J. C. in the Lozinger gym at 8:00 p. m.

Harbor, a new entry in the Metropolitan Conference, handed Palos Verdes a sound drubbing as they counted more than one hundred points. Harbor then dropped a close decision to a tough Compton foe.

Coach Morrow's contingent, after a slow start, will show four returning lettermen on the roster, Hap Jacobs, Hugh Corrigan, Ed Kennedy, and George Naumann.

Jacobs, a dead-eye forward from Redondo, hit constantly last year and should be ready to show his stuff in the league opener. He will be flanked by another letterman, Hugh Corrigan.

Leonard Erickson, All Bay League center from Inglewood will use his 6'4" frame at the opening jump shot. Guards Ed Kennedy and Ken Kesson will be the probable starters. Kennedy, a smooth ball-handler, has yet to hit his mid-season form. This stellar guard is a help on controlling the boards.

George Naumann, the other returning letterman, will be on hand for reserve forward duty. This scrappy sophomore, although short, is a smooth player.

Paul Smith, Dick Zwalnz, Jim Cline and Don Davis all should see a great deal of action. Zwalnz, a transfer from Santa Barbara Frosh, stands 6'3" and has been controlling the boards in the earlier games. Cline played with Don Eby and Chet Noe at Washington High and although he received little recognition, played well. Cline holds down a forward post.

Smith, a 6'4" giant from Torrance, is another able ball-handler and works well under the boards.

After the Harbor clash, the Warriors will set their sights on league encounters with San Diego, Bakersfield, Santa Monica, and East L. A.

LATEST ENTRY... Ken Kesson, of Torrance, is one of the few newcomers who has broken into the El Camino College starting line-up this season. Standing six-foot, three-inches tall, Guard Kesson controls the board well and has exhibited speed and finesse on defense.

Miller, Turner Lead Shoeman To Third Win

By DUANE MITTAN

The National Supply cagers favored by many to win the City Basketball League crown, fell victim to a surprising Fenwick's Shoe upsurge Friday night, and dropped their first game of the season, 40, to 34.

The victory kept the Fenwick slate clean with a 3-0 record.

Ormsby Miller, center, and Guard Jack Turner of the Fenwick's sparked their team's victory by dumping 10 markers each through the hoop. High point man of the game was Dude Olson, of National Supply.

In other Friday night games, Prodan-Foote's powerhouse with Big Bob Graff supplying the spark, downed Reed's Polar Kitchen, 49-36. Graff emmeshed 24 points for high scoring honors.

The Torrance Merchants faced the Torrance Teacher aggregation, 57-49. Al Widner scored 21 points for the Merchants, who jumped to an early lead which they never relinquished.

All games were played at the Torrance High School gym.

Quantico Grids Nip Pendleton

Quantico Marines continued to rule the roost in All-Navy football last week-end, whipping the Camp Pendleton Marines, 14-13, in the title contest before some 12,000 spectators at the Los Angeles Coliseum. It was the third straight year for Quantico in the king row.

Camp Pendleton almost pulled the game out of the fire in the last few seconds, driving to the seven yard line with 30 seconds to play—and a field goal try by Bob Hodel missed connections.
