

Meet Set by WSCS

Women of Torrance Methodized in interracial subjects will be interested in the WSCS meeting to be held today in the church.

Mrs. L. Jordan of Los Angeles will be the guest speaker following the 12:30 luncheon, for which the customary 50-cent charge will be made.

Final arrangements will be made at this meeting for one of the organization's popular rummage sales scheduled for Friday and Saturday, January 27 and 28.

Cub Scouts Open Their Membership

Due to a change in the age limits for Cub Scout membership there are now openings for 18 Cub Scouts and two Den Mothers in Pack 218C, according to a report given in a business meeting of the pack this week.

To those interested in taking advantage of the openings more information may be obtained by calling Lomita 1017M.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bushnell were hosts to the Den Mothers and committeemen at their home, 1625 W. 251st street.

Attending were Carl Westfall, Messrs. and Mmes. E. R. Schmidt, E. A. Abbott, John Merbach, John Zell, and H. Tregarten. The serving of refreshments completed the evening.

Bushell Concert Singers To Present Sacred Concert In Methodist Church

Sponsored by the Torrance Council of Churches, the Bushell Concert Singers will present a sacred concert in First Methodist Church Sunday evening, January 15 at 7:30 o'clock.

Everyone is invited to attend the concert, to be presented by 30 trained soloists of the community, who have been organized this past year under the leadership of their teacher, Leonard Bushell. Their purpose is to present only the best in the sacred and secular fields of music, Bushell stated.

The official signature for all the programs is "Evening Hymn," a composition of James

Mr. and Mrs. Mattheis Return From Honeymoon

First Methodist Church was the setting for one of the prettiest weddings of the winter season when Miss Harriett Gladys Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bender, of 917 Beech avenue, became the bride of James Milton Mattheis, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Berney Mattheis of Big Bear Lake.

Rev. Clarence Miller, pastor, officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony performed in the presence of 200 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride was attired in a white satin bouffant gown fashioned with a lace trimmed yoke. Her finger-tip veil was draped from a pearl beaded Juliette cap and she carried a white orchid bouquet designed with a shower of Stephanotis.

Martha Jean Bender was her sister's maid of honor wearing American Beauty satin. Her flowers were variegated carnations in a heart shaped arrangement.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Roberta Joyce Dickerson of Petaluma, Laura Lou Laving of Riverside and Betty Price of Los Angeles wore gowns of turquoise satin and carried heart shaped arrangements of American Beauty carnations with streamers of turquoise ribbon.

David Mattheis was his brother's best man and ushers were Bob Vincent of Glendale Arizona; Frederick Stock, Torrance, and Wally Leonard of Arcadia.

Vernon L. Robinson, of Los Angeles played the accompaniment for Lee Halloran, uncle of the bridegroom, who sang.

A reception followed at the church social hall and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Mattheis left for a honeymoon in San Francisco. They will live in Torrance.

Mrs. Bender received her guests in a dinner dress of coral crepe with gold accessories and Mrs. Mattheis wore a turquoise evening dress with white accessories and gardenias.

The bride, a music student at El Camino College, was graduated from Torrance High School and completed two years' study at La Verne College. Mr. Mattheis was graduated from La Verne College and now is attending the University of California.

PTA Council Hears Talk On Consumer Education

For those Gateway PTA Council members who do not attend consumer education classes, the talk given by Mrs. Alpha Stump, consumer education instructor in this area, at the monthly council meeting held Monday morning here was enlightening and instructive.

Mrs. Stump gave a detailed account of the many newer materials on the market that are used for clothing, draperies, curtains and upholstery, explaining their qualities and uses. She also said that the present scare regarding nylon hosiery is unfounded.

The meeting, held in the home of Mrs. W. J. Schroeder on Ozon Avenue, Harbor City, was presided over by Mrs. M. E. Harp, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. H. W. Nansel, who is in Nebraska.

Mrs. Hazel Stanton and Mrs. O. I. Johnson were appointed to serve on the credential committee for Torrance District PTA and the nominating committee comprising all association presidents of the council and Mrs. J. J. Millard, acting parliamentarian in the absence of Mrs. W. H. Savage, met in committee following their appointment.

A total of $16.50 was received from council members for the Torrance District building fund derived in lieu of the annual holiday exchange of gifts.

Association reports were heard from the following presidents or their assistants: Mesdames P. V. Aguirre, Banning; E. C. Spires, Dana Junior High; M. P. Allen, San Pedro High; Minot Rugg, Narbonne and Eric Holzman, Gardens.

Opening the meeting was Mrs. Victor Christensen as she led the group with the pledge of allegiance to the flag; and Mrs. George Tamble followed with a lovely poem titled "Have Patience, Mothers" as the inspirational message.

C. P. Lyon, principal of Narbonne High School, was special guest of the day. The annual Founders' Day meeting of the council will be held February 6 with Mrs. Hazel Stanton, Founders' Day chairman, in charge at Banning High School.

Fashion Show to Highlight PTA Activities

A spring fashion show will claim the attention of members of the Lomita Elementary PTA for the next few weeks while preparations get under way for one of the biggest fund-raising projects of the year.

This and other events were outlined at an executive board meeting held in the school auditorium Wednesday. Mrs. Joe Stahl presided.

A feature-length colored film titled, "The Enchanted Forest" was announced for the school children for Tuesday of this week. Funds derived from the film and another project, the "ask-it basket" now being circulated in the community, will be used to defray the extra Christmas expense incurred by the organization for welfare work.

Mrs. Jane Rye, school principal, announced that a very popular adult class is to be held at the school. Upholstery will be taught on Monday and Wednesday each week from 7 to 10 o'clock. The exact opening date for the class will be announced later.

Twelfth Birthday Is Noted

Jackie, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of House 3, CCMO, celebrated his birthday with an enjoyable party Sunday at the family home.

Letto, a balloon blowing contest, and television occupied Jackie and his guests until refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served in a festive style.

Present were the celebrant and his sister Leda Ann, and Kenneth Wheat, Douglas Bergen, Tony Ward, Clifford Grace, Gary Litalker, Edwood Neilson, David Rhone, Richard Malone, Stanley Wright, and Berry and Janet Coleman.

Torrance RNA Installation Set for 17th

At the meeting of Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors held last Tuesday evening in Torrance Womans Clubhouse, plans were formulated for installation of officers, set for next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Angelina Disario presided.

Installing officer will be Mrs. Mamie Kirschner of Culver City, district deputy. She will be assisted by Mrs. Louise Walker, as assistant marshal and an escort team composed of members of the Inglewood lodge will participate.

Announce New Baby's Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Züver of 24701 Narbonne avenue are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their first great grandchild, a baby girl born January 7 at the Centinela Hospital, Inglewood to claim Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Decker of Torrance as parents.

The little girl, who weighed five pounds, 14 ounces at birth, has been named Sandra Lynn. Her mother is the former Barbara Lisoni of Torrance.

Finished manufactures account for 70 percent of American exports.

Lionesses' Valentine Party Plans

At the business meeting held Tuesday evening of last week the Lioness Club sketched plans for a valentine party to be held early next month.

Mrs. Kay Jakubowski, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Frances Burton, president.

Refreshments were served following the business meeting and a social hour was enjoyed.

Baby Boy Is New Arrival

The New Year brought a bundle of joy, a bouncing baby boy, to the Justin Marcell home at Apartment No. 313, Harbor Hills on Tuesday, January 3.

Named Thomas, the baby, weighing seven pounds, 14 ounces, made his arrival at the Magnolia Hospital in Long Beach and was welcomed by an older brother and sister.
