MRS. CLEON RICHMOND HEADS ALTAR SOCIETY

Election and installation of officers was the principal business conducted at the first meeting of the year when Nativity Altar Society members met Tuesday evening in parish hall. Mrs. Cleon Richmond was elected and installed as president and supporting her are Mrs. Emil F. Ziemke, newly elected vice president and Mrs. Albert A. Martin, as secretary and Mrs. Walter A. Schaeffer, treasurer, who were reelected to serve an additional year. Mrs. Robert T. Allred, retiring president, was presented with an attractive fitted case by the organization in appreciation for her splendid leadership during the year. The presentation was made by Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor, who thanked officers and membership for their fine cooperation and accomplishments in 1949.

Hilarious Mock Wedding Feature of OES Program

Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star had a very pleasant and interesting meeting Thursday evening in Masonic Temple. Chapter was called to order by the worthy patron, Frederick Cook with Gladys Mothersell, worthy matron presiding. Myrtle Rochas, worthy matron of Point Fermin Chapter, San Pedro, was presented and escorted to the East. At the close of the meeting a program was presented by the men of Torrance Chapter honoring the 21st wedding anniversary of the worthy matron Gladys Mothersell, and associate patron Gordon Mothersell. A womanless wedding was the highlight of the hilarious program. Lois Lougee played "The Prisoner's Song" as a prelude to the wedding and Leonard Babcock sang "There is a Tavern in the Town." First to enter were John Harshbarger as the groom, Homer Morgan as the best man and Joe Hardin as the father. The groom was not too anxious to get married, so the father prodded him occasionally with a shot gun. Gerald Crow, as the minister, entered in tails and striped trousers carrying his book for the wedding ceremony. Next entered Earl Babcock as the ring bearer in a complete small boy's outfit including Eton jacket. He carried a white satin pillow on which rested a pair of handcuffs to be used as the wedding ring. Now two flower girls, Bud Edwards and Vincent Villenave, entered dressed as young girls in short chiffon dresses and carrying baskets filled with cabbage leaves which they dropped along the aisle. The bride was Thomas Foster wearing a wig and bridal veil. Bridesmaids were Jack Miller and Fred Bever, dressed in girl's wedding outfits, even to high heel shoes. Long blonde wigs completed their costumes. All were invited to the banquet room where the wedding theme was followed with an individual wedding cake for the honored couple and small green and gold wedding bells were placed favors. Chairman for the evening was Waneta Coll assisted by Persia Fess, Frank Krow, Irma Harrington, Mary Schultz, Lillian Starks, and Patricia Patterson.

BUSINESS WOMEN SET JANUARY ACTIVITIES

Next dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance will be held Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock, at Melton's in Manhattan Beach. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Earline Staver, Torrance 2450-W and no cancellations will be accepted after Friday, the 13th. Mrs. Staver has secured as guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. Marco Katsich, well-known expert on interior decorations. The Los Angeles District meeting will be held at 2:00 p.m. January 14 in Glendale, followed by a dinner meeting at which James G. Bryant and Ralph Wade will speak on various phases of the California Department of Employment. Reservations should be made with President Harriet Spencer. Final plans for the entertainment of the Bay Section have been formulated and this meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, January 29 at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Mrs. Emma Roberts is general chairman and inasmuch as the Torrance club is hostess to the section, it is requested that all members attend this meeting. Reservations are to be made with President Harriet Spencer.

New Chamber Music Series
 Music of three centuries was selected for the first chamber music concert in the ten week winter series which opened at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park Sunday. In the nine weeks to follow the County Museum will present distinguished Southern California musicians in works by composers from pre-Bach times to the present day. The concerts are presented by the museum's education division and are made possible through the collaboration of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and the Los Angeles County Music Commission. Admission to these programs is free.
