

MRS. ANNIS CHRISTENSEN

BERGEN HOME SETTING FOR OPEN HOUSE FETE

Complimenting Mrs. Annis Christensen on the occasion of her 74th birthday, her daughters, Mesdames von M. Bergen and L. C. Nelson of Torrance; R. S. Grow of Huntington Park and Ashby Stringham of Lynwood held open-house Wednesday afternoon at the Bergen home, 2467 Sonoma avenue. Approximately 75 Torrance and out-of-town friends of the family called during the afternoon and evening to offer felicitations. Also arriving in time for the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Blair of Ogdon, Utah, a law and sister of the celebrant.

A resident, who now lives with Mrs. Neilson at 1310 Madrid avenue is the mother of 12 children, 11 of whom are living. She also has the distinction of having 57 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Halldale Meeting

The monthly meeting of Halldale PTA will be held at 1:30 today in room 9. Mrs. E. M. Bernardin will preside. The program for the meeting will feature UNESCO. Participating will be the children of Mrs. Wilma Claar's room who will present a film entitled, "The Story of Transportation." There also will be a community sing, and a film, "Now the Peace" will be shown.

On Thursday, January 19, members of Halldale PTA will enjoy a trip through a well known Los Angeles bakery followed by a luncheon, and on January 21, the PTA will hold a bake sale. Announcement of the time and place will be made later.

Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal, announced the retirement of Mrs. Evelyn Coigarripe on January 27. Mrs. Coigarripe has been a teacher in the Torrance schools for many years, and is well known in the community. Mrs. Bonwell also announced that the week starting January 16 will be dedicated to the March of Dimes.

The school semester ends January 27, and enrollment for kindergarten pupils may be made starting January 22. Admittance will be made according to age and children must be five on or before August 1.

'Fathers Night'

"Fathers Night" will be observed this evening at the regular meeting of Waleria PTA at the school. Speaker of the evening will be J. M. Kennick, superintendent of the Juvenile Bureau, Long Beach. The musical portion of the program will be a cello solo, "Largo" from the New World Symphony, which will be played by Miss Cynthia Jansson. She will be accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Gemoels.

Plans are under way for the Founders' Day program to be held in February, when Waleria Parent Teacher Association will celebrate its silver anniversary. The executive board meeting of the Waleria PTA was held at Recreation Hall, Thursday morning, Mrs. Robert Ziske presided and Mrs. B. J. Michaels, welfare chairman, reported that 43 articles of clothing were distributed in November.

BUTTON BABY

The Christmas-New Year holidays brought new joy into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville G. Button of Pomona when their second daughter arrived December 28 at the Pomona Valley Hospital.

The new arrival weighed seven pounds, nine ounces and was named Diane Louise. Her mother is the former Pauline Stump.

A&P Has Cut Prices 21% on These Fine Foods during the past year!

What do you consider good service in a food store? Do you get it at your A&P?

Of course, we expect all our employees to be friendly and courteous. But we think good service goes beyond that. We train our employees to be prompt, efficient, helpful and accurate as well.

To us, good service means quality food offered at low prices, in clean, well-stocked and well-operated stores.

Any time your A&P doesn't measure up to these yardsticks of good service, please let us know about it. Write:
