Orange PTA Receives Check for Welfare Fund

A gift of $300 from a woman who wishes her identity to remain undisclosed was received by members of the Orange Street PTA to be used for welfare work, executive board members were informed when they met at the school to make final plans for tonight's meeting at Narbonne High School.

Mrs. R. P. Kellogg, president, conducted the meeting which was concerned principally with plans to welcome Mrs. LeRoy Bailey, International Relations chairman for the California State Congress of Parents and Teachers and its Tenth District of Los Angeles, when she appears this evening before an audience of parents and civic leaders of Lomita and surrounding towns. Mrs. James B. Flag, refreshment chairman, appointed a committee to assist with refreshments for the social hour to follow the meeting and Mrs. Peter Zanke, hospitality chairman, named her committee for the evening. J. R. Jones, assistant hospitality chairman, and the other seven members of the executive board will be ushers.

Room mothers also attended the meeting, to assist with arrangements. The annual Founders' Day in February will be a night meeting this year with the Mothersingers presenting a "Gay Nineties" show under the direction of Mrs. H. V. Blakesley, chorus director. Mrs. G. C. Tait, Founders' Day chairman, announced. Past presidents of the association will be honored. Mr. L. A. Gibson, chairman, and Mrs. Boderman, assistant, announced a Parent Education class to be held Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 12 o'clock beginning February 1 and continuing for ten weeks. Mrs. Beatrice Woodbridge will be instructor.

Laughon Home To Be Party Setting For Club Juniors

Torrance Junior Woman's Club will honor new and prospective members Sunday morning, January 22, at a rush coffee from 9 until 11 o'clock. Mrs. W. I. Laughon, junior past president of Torrance Woman's Club, and a Junior Club advisor, has graciously extended the hospitality of her beautiful new Hollywood Riviera home for the occasion. Mrs. H. P. Jensen, Junior Club president, will report on the year's activities of her organization at a Los Angeles District conference to be held in Gardena Teenage Community Center on January 23. Frances Nash Donovan will be the featured entertainer at the club initiation dinner scheduled for 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, January 25, in the clubhouse.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Ice Skating

Boy Scout Troop 218, sponsored by the Lomita American Legion Post 645, enjoyed an ice skating party Saturday night. Commander Joe Haslam, Ed Stambaugh, and Senior Patrol Leader Gene Krieger were in charge of the party. Members of the Owl Patrol ladies were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carter on 250 street where hot dogs, punch and cake, were served. Others attending were Mrs. Irene Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smithen.
