

MR. AND MRS. JAMES W. CHAPMAN

Miss Allen Tells Vows With James W. Chapman

The Madrid avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Allen was the attractive setting for the wedding of their daughter, Patricia Sue, to Mr. James W. Chapman of Redondo Beach. Rev. Cecil England, pastor of First Christion Church, officiated in the presence of 75 wedding guests. Given in marriage by her father, the lovely blonde bride wore a suit of beige Shantung with contrasting accessories and gardenias. Miss Nancy Allen, her sister's only attendant, was attired in a suit of powder blue complemented by pink rosebuds. Loyale Mills attended the bridegroom as best man. Preceding the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dick Willis of Torrance played appropriate piano and saxophone numbers. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left for a brief honeymoon at Big Bear Lake. They will live in Redondo Beach. The bridegroom, who is a son of Mrs. Ted McGill of Madera, California, was educated in Redondo Beach. Mrs. Chapman received her education in Torrance schools.

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Trio Installation

In a beautiful floral setting arranged in California Hall, Lomita, officers who will serve Trio Rebekah Lodge during the first six months of 1950 were installed in impressive ceremonies. Decorations were in yellow and fuchsia with a large table centerpiece of daffodils and yellow chrysanthemums. Arrangements of fuchsia, stocks and yellow chrysanthemums adorned each station. The impressive installation ceremony, directed by District Deputy President Olive Veatch and Retta Nelson, district deputy marshal, seated the following elective and appointive officers: Winifred Brase, junior past noble grand; Anna May Isbell, noble grand; Ona Pence, vice grand; Hattie Schroeder, recording secretary; Dorothy Rogers, financial secretary; Retta Nelson, treasurer; Lelia Sellens, warden; Mary Smith, conductor; Emma Applin, Chaplain. Ruth Deems, musician; Amy Savage, inside guardian; Belva Brase, outside guardian; Margie Russell, right supporter to noble grand; Ada Anderson, left supporter to noble grand; Pearl Montonye, right supporter to vice grand; Eleanor Furquar, left supporter to vice grand; Marie Aris, right altar bearer; Ellen Smith, left altar bearer; Tirzah Taber, Etta Woods, Laura Adams, Bessie Little, banner bearers; Elizabeth Hunt, degree mistress; Arza Veatch, Emma Applin, Pearl Montonye, trustees. At the conclusion of the ceremonies Mrs. Winifred Brase, soloist of the degree staff, sang "Evening Prayer" and she in turn presented the following program: Piano solo—"Revel of the Wood Nymphs," Florence Newell Barbour and "Water Colors"—(Mark Nevin) by Bryan Jones and two piano solos by Elbridge Walker.
