George McDonald, officiated at the Methodist ceremony performed in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a navy blue gown fashioned with white lace yoke complemented by blue and white accessories. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Attending her sister was Miss Peggy Jo Crook, who wore gray with navy accessories and carried a corsage of white rosebuds. Edward Jackson was the bridegroom's attendant.

Miss Crook was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of winter '48 and is employed at the Los Angeles office of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Her husband received his diploma with the same class and is attending El Camino College, where he is specializing in business administration.

Mr. and Mrs. Stirling are at home at 2010 Arlington avenue.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN PHILIP A. SCHWARTZ

JOHN P. SCHWARTZ TAKES CHARMING BRIDE IN ARCADIA CHURCH CEREMONY

Church of the Good Shepherd, Arcadia, was the setting for one of the most beautiful wedding ceremonies of the late winter season when John Philip Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwartz, of Torrance took as his bride Miss Florence Elizabeth Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Daniel of Arcadia and formerly of Torrance.

Pussy willow branches which were attached to gardenias and pedestal arrangements of white stock, pompon, caryophyllus, and daisies adorned the sanctuary and low bowls of the same flowers flanked its entrance.

The bride's father escorted her up the flower outlined aisle and gave her in marriage, Miss Daniel chose for her wedding attire a formal gown of ivory satin fashioned with sheer yoke with double lace ruffle. A v-inset of lace and ruffles trimmed the skirt front and the back fell into a graceful cathedral train. On a white prayer book she carried a corsage of white hyacinths, and stephanotis centered with two white orchids.

Miss Jean Daniel, her sister's maid of honor, was gowned in bronze brocaded satin fashioned with brown velvet trim and complemented by a matching halo-shaped hat with tulle bow. The bridesmaids, the Misses

Barbara Lisman and Doris Pischel of Torrance, wore pale green velvet trimmed gowns the same as that worn by the
