Boys' Athletic League Offers Track Awards

The Boys' Athletic League will sponsor awards for first, second, third and fourth, places next Monday at 1:30 p.m. when the High School's first intramural track and field meet of the year is held, Track Coach Rex Welch said yesterday.

Welch said he will be watching the winners of the meet to pick material for the Beverly Hills-Torrance field and track meet the following Friday.

He said he is especially hopeful about Ronnie Higgins, highly touted high jumper, and is counting on Johnnie Kulp for the 880 and the mile. Of course Bill Wernet is the top boy to date for the 440 and the broad jump.

But, reminds Welch, anything can happen, and we usually find some new and interesting material at these intramurals.

Torrance Market Wins Medals for Sportsmanship

By DUANE MITTAN

Fenwick's Shoe Shop Five last night won the city championship of the City Basketball League over the Harbor Dees, who were the victors last week in the "Blue" Wednesday division. Fenwick had previously won the championship of the "Black" Friday league.

The final score was 54-19.

The Recreation Department's four-year-old Perpetual Trophy was presented to the winners by City Manager Geo. Stevens.

Individual awards for sportsmanship in the City Basketball League were given to the Greater Torrance Market cagers last night by the Sports Boosters, a group of businessmen dedicated to the promotion of sports in Torrance.

Elmer "Red" Moon, said the Marketeers and Fenwick's team were tied for the sportsmanship awards on points, and the award had to be determined by the memory and personal analysis of this season's games by Dr. Rollin Smith, president of the league, after Al Turner and Jack Wright, the other directors, disqualified themselves because they have sons on the Fenwick team.

"Moon said the awards, given this year for the first time, have been a great aid in cutting down fighting on the floor during games. Each team was given 100 points to start with at the beginning of the season and no team lost more than five points in penalties.

The division awards were presented by Tommy Wilkes representing Howards Jewelers, sponsors of the "Black" Division trophy, and Red Moon, acting for Walteria Hattery, sponsor of the trophy for the "Blue" division.

Coach Graybehl Is Proud of Tartar Varsity

Basketball Coach Cliff Graybehl has high praise for his varsity basketball team that wound up the season this week in a tie for fourth place in the Bay League.

He said the team did very well considering the fact the school is the second smallest in the league, with a correspondingly smaller group of athletes to draw upon.

The game lost this week to Jordan and one dropped to Redondo were said by the other schools' coaches to be the best games those schools played during the season, Graybehl said.

The loss to Inglewood was a last minute fluke.

And, besides, the Tartars were a green team at the beginning of the year, further smitten by the loss, in mid-season, of Dick Carrow, the team's sparkplug. . . "now, if Redondo and Jordan hadn't played so hard, mused Graybehl—"and if you discount that Inglewood fluke", . . . ah, but the might-of-beams are interesting at this time of year.

Next year will be better. Some of these now-experienced boys will be back—and then we'll see.

Warriors Breathing on Necks Of First Place East L.A.

When El Camino takes the basketball floor against Santa Monica tonight, Coach John Morrow's boys will not only be plugging for a chance at the Metro Conference championship, but they will be out to get revenge for a first-round defeat.

The contest will be played on the Santa Monica High School floor at 8 p.m.

Last round Santa Monica downed El Camino 60-59 on the local floor with Gordon Hein tanking 26 points. This pint-sized forward accounted for 16 free tosses and 5 field goals.

If the locals want to take this all-important Metropolitan Conference tussle, Hein must be stopped. His team-mate forward, Hungerford, and center, Holland, also have hit consistently throughout the season and will be dangerous under the boards.

An El Camino win will place the locals on the heels of East L. A. who should have an easy time with Harbor. The following week, Friday, March 3, El Camino will host the Huskies to decide the Conference championship.

Against Santa Monica Coach John Morrow will start the same five who worked against San Diego and Bakersfield. Hugh Corrigan, Paul Held, Dick Zwaizn, Ken Kesson, and Ed Kennedy. Len Erickson and Hap Jacobs, top point getters in recent games, will be used in reserve. Jim Cline, and Paul Smith should also see a great deal of action.

Tiny Ees Win First Game in San Pedro Meet

The tiny Torrance Ees won their first game yesterday in the San Pedro Y's Men's Tournament at the San Pedro YMCA when they almost whitewashed Wilhall Ees, 29-6.

The victory guaranteed the Torrance boys at least second place in the four team competition and they will get a chance at first when they meet the San Pedro Boy's Club Ees Saturday in the Admiral Leigh gym at the San Pedro Y.

Y. M. C. A. Boys To See Pro Football Film

The picture will be shown Monday, March 6 at 7:30 p.m., at the Evangelical United Brethren Guild hall for Hi 'Y' boys from Torrance and Lonita; Junior Hi 'Y' boys will see the picture at 2 p.m., March 7 at the High School; and Gray 'Y' boys will see it at 7 p.m., March 8, at the Fern avenue Recreation Hut.

Recreation Dees Win First Game in Pedro Meet

The Recreation Department's B team won their first game from the San Pedro Boys' Club 33-24 in the First Annual Harbor Area Boys' Basketball Tournament at San Pedro last week as the Dees dropped out with a 27-31 loss to the Boys' Club D five.

And both teams are still slowly wagging their heads over the way Tommy Burchfield, Torrance B Center, ran wild to a score of 22.

Bob Moon, son of the Recreation Department's Sport Director, "Red" Moon, was high man for the Dees, with a 12.

The Dees will next play the San Pedro Boys' Club No. 2 Saturday at 3 p.m., at the Y in the tournament sponsored by the San Pedro Y's Men's Club, the Los Angeles Recreation Department, San Pedro Boys' Club, the San Pedro Y.M.C.A., the Barton Hill Playground and the Golden State Foundation.

30 Turn Out For Baseball

El Camino baseball coach Doug Essick sounded the call to action and was greeted by approximately 30 horseshoe hopefuls last week on the Alondra diamond.

Among the gathering were six members of last year's team. They included catcher Jack Hall, pitchers Jerry McIlwaine and John Kasser, second baseman George Inouye, outfielder Ross Sidebottom, and first baseman Paul Held, who is at the present time busy with basketball.
