Jordan High Puts Double Whammy On Tartars

Long Beach Jordan High threw a double whammy at Torrance Varsity last Friday in the person of two players named Peek and Handley that knocked the Tartars off the floor.

The Tartars were cruising along nicely in the first quarter at Jordan, as much as eight points ahead at one time, ending the quarter 15-11 for our side.

Then it happened. Jordan Forward Peek and Center Handley tore loose through the Tartars and Whammy! Inside of ten minutes Jordan stacked up 16 points to end the half 27-22.

The Tartars were falling apart at the seams. Peak had pushed in 15 points and Handley was well on his way to a total score of 20.

During the first part of the third quarter, Jordan made 12 points in a row without a single Tartar tally. At one time Jordan was 20 points ahead.

Then Tartar Coach Cliff Graybehl pulled his whole wild-eyed first team and benched them.

Jordan continued to score heavily on the Tartar stubs. After three more minutes, Graybehl asked his first stringers how the perspective looked.

And they said "Yes." In the next few minutes they staged a panic of their own.

By the end of the third quarter, the Tartars had clipped off 18 points of their own to bring the tally to 40-30, still 10 points in favor of Jordan.

The Tartars scored 20 points in that quarter alone. But Jordan added 18 and the game ended 58-50 in what Jordanites said was their best played game of the year, for them.

Johnnie Kulp, Tartar Forward who usually counts his scores in the teens, was so heavily guarded by Jordan that he was held to one point.

Aramis Dandoy's floor performance and his 11 points should get him a nomination as All-Bay League guard, Graybehl hoped.

Bees Win Uphill Battle Against Jordan Team

The Torrance Bees fought a hard, uphill battle against the Long Beach Jordan B team Friday to finally come out ahead in the fourth bracket with a 45-41 win.

Jordan was ahead all the way until the very end with quarter scores of 13-9, 25-21, and 32-31. Spectacular in the game for Torrance was Glenn V. Boyce, who, only a few weeks ago, took the place of Boyd Crawford's guard spot when Crawford graduated.

He picked in nine counters, but his floor work was credited with aiding some of the points that went to Baron, Glatras, and the other scorers.

Norman Stock's defensive work also got high acclaim.

JUNIOR HI 'Y' CAGE LEAGUE IN WORKS

Definite plans are in the making for a Junior Hi 'Y' basketball league involving Torrance next year, according to Milton Isbell, 'Y' executive secretary.

He said yesterday that Torrance eighth graders have been playing non-league games this year with Gardena and other towns and he thinks it probable a league will be organized comprising Torrance, Gardena, San Pedro, Wilmington and possibly Redondo Beach.

Bring on the Guillotine, Says Graybehl

"We are going to be guillotined," wailed Basketball Coach Cliff Graybehl as he opened his mail and found his Tartar Varsity is scheduled to meet tough Compton first in the Beverly Hills Tournament Friday afternoon at Beverly Hills High School.

"They've won top place in their Coast League," he mourned. "And that league is the toughest in Southern California. They are ceded No. 1 in the tournament."

He stared fondly out his office window at his boys exercising on the playground outside. "But those boys will go down fighting," he finished.

"By some peculiar irony, too," Bee Coach Eddie Cole put in. "The Bees meet the Compton Bees in The Santa Monica Tournament the same day. They're leading their league, too."

"How will we come out? I don't know. Let's wait and see."

California's 1100 licensed trappers will close the fur-bearing mammal trapping season at midnight, February 27, reports the Division of Fish and Game.

Until the trapping season reopens November 16, it will be illegal to take pine martens, muskrats, mink, river otters, and grey, cross, red, silver, or kit foxes.

Merchants Nine Beat Police, 8-2

The Torrance Police took an 8-2 drubbing last Sunday on a muddy field at Municipal Park from the Southwest Merchants, but Swayne Johnson, playing manager, had high praise for his players, whom, he said, were rusty after not playing for eight weeks.
