

Mothers Slate Election

Election of officers will feature the meeting of Job's Daughters Mothers Club of Bethel 50 to be held at 7:30 Monday evening, February 27. Mrs. Don Wolf, president, will open her home at 21804 Halldale avenue for the session. A full attendance is requested.

WEEKEND VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Spera of 4108 W. 164th street were recent weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slois of Alhambra.

SONATA PROGRAM

A program of sonatas for cello and viola respectively, by Bach, Brahms, Paganini, and Chabrier, will be performed by the Reher Ensemble and guest artist, Mario di Tullio, at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, Sunday afternoon, February 26, at 3 o'clock.

FROM CHICAGO

Mrs. Helen Glingerich of Chicago arrived Saturday for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Powers of 1309 Manuel avenue. The Chicagoan is a sister of Mrs. Evelyn Lynch of the Manuel avenue address and of Mrs. Margery King, also of Torrance.

Girl Scout Song Is Introduced

J. Russell Robinson, noted composer, has written a song especially for the Girl Scouts entitled "Come Along With Us." Mr. Robinson is the father of such hits as "Margarita," "Portrait of Jenny," "Mary Lou" and countless others.

The new song was officially introduced Sunday afternoon at the Pan Pacific Auditorium when the Girl Scouts were the guests of the "National Go to Church Campaign" at the ice hockey game. Guest stars from filmland entertained the Girl Scouts at this event.

Missionary Meeting Is Calendared

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Lutheran Church will meet at the parish hall Thursday, March 2, at 1 o'clock. The topic for this month's study is to be "To the Jew First." A Christian film will augment the program.

ON WEEK'S TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington were among those from Torrance who attended the Date Festival at Indio. They left here Friday for a week's trip to Imperial Valley, which also will take them to Mexicali on business.

FORMER TORRANCE GIRL TELLS VOWS BEFORE 400

At home following their honeymoon in Honolulu are Robert M. Rankin Jr., of Los Angeles, and his bride, the former Miss Ruth Kerber of Long Beach and formerly of Torrance. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Steen Parker, of Monte Mar Drive, Los Angeles, and Miss Kerber's parents, long-time Torrance residents, are Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kerber of Long Beach. Approximately 400 wedding guests witnessed the impressive double ring ceremony read in First Baptist Church of Los Angeles at which Rev. V. Stanley Silke, pastor, officiated. The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in an exquisite gown of rose-petal pink Chantilly lace over taffeta, which was designed by the bridegroom's mother. She carried a large arrangement of orchids.

Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was held by seed pearls from her mother's wedding veil. Mrs. Laura Prince of Long Beach, as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Jane McBride, Wilma Jean McBride, Beverly McCluer, and Pat Anderson, wore fuchsia-hued gowns of taffeta and carried bouquets of orchids and roses. Little Barbara Hawksley, 20 months old, was flower girl in petal pink lace fashioned like the bride's gown.

Bruce D. Brown of Los Angeles attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Thomas Doyle, Robert Berson, James E. Kay, and Jack Peel.

At the reception which immediately followed in the church parlors, Mrs. Kerber received her guests in winter rose complemented by a matching Juliet bonnet trimmed with rosebuds. Mrs. Parker's gown was of pink crepe. Both mothers wore double orchid corsages.

A five-tiered pink-iced wedding cake, encircled with rose camellias, was cut by Mrs. Ralph E. Satchell of San Pedro and formerly of Torrance, and Mrs. Laura Le Rador of Long Beach, poured.

Later at the home of the bridegroom's parents, dinner was served to 40 guests and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Rankin left by plane for Honolulu. They are receiving their friends at 121 E. Bort street, Long Beach.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and Woodbury Business College. Her husband received his diploma from Glendale City College. During World War II he served with the Navy and the Marine Corps.

The same news that brings great joy to most grandparents was music to the ears of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bader, 26022 Eshelman avenue Sunday, when they received a telegram informing them that their first grandchild was born early that morning in Akron, Ohio.

The little boy, who weighed seven pounds at birth, has been named Stephan Joseph Bader. His mother is the former Lynda A. Archer of Atlanta, Georgia. His daddy, a Narbonne High School graduate, received his master's degree in industrial engineering from Georgia Tech and is now employed as a statistical quality control engineer for the Goodyear Rubber Co.

GUEST AT RHONE HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone entertained informally Saturday evening in their Beech avenue home. Their guests were Rev. Arthur Bello, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Nat Williamson.

FERN PTA TO HONOR FOUNDERS

Founders Day will be observed at this evening's meeting of Fern Avenue PTA when past presidents will be honored.

Emmett Ingram, Board of Education executive, as featured speaker will present as his topic, "Financing Tomorrow's Schools." Following the business meeting, delicious refreshments will be served by the kindergarten room mothers. A nursery will be provided for young children. Fern Avenue PTA has voted to sponsor a Cub Scout Troop. A committee has been organized and registrations will be taken tomorrow evening at 7:30 at the school. Boys between the ages of 8 and 11 may join.

Many interesting activities are on the Spring calendar. In April, Chief Chibiabos, a Chippewah Indian, will give a colorful and educational program on lives and customs of the Pueblo, Sioux, Navajo and Chippewah Indian tribes. Beadwork, baskets and Indian-made articles will be on display and the Chief will dance to the tom-toms.

The Spring Carnival is planned for the last of May. This is an annual event that is always eagerly anticipated both by the children and parents. There will be amusement booths, hot dog stand, candy and pop, sewing and baked goods booths. Many women are making articles now that the sewing booth may be a real success.

Bethel 50 Rummage

Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, will sponsor a rummage sale to be held tomorrow, Friday afternoon and all day Saturday in the former Torrance Herald building, 1336 El Prado.

The girls will offer for sale clothing, shoes, hats, books, toys and odds and ends.

LINDSAY KELSEY TAKES BRIDE IN CHAPEL RITE

St. Cecilia's Chapel in Mission Inn, Riverside was the setting for an impressive noon wedding ceremony Saturday when Lindsay B. Kelsey of 704 Sartori avenue took as his bride Mrs. Emma Elizabeth Kelly, of 609 South Broadway, Redondo Beach.

Rev. B. H. Barlow, retired Presbyterian minister, officiated in the presence of family members and intimate friends of the principals. Given in marriage by her son, David Lee Kelly of Redondo Beach, the bride was attractively attired in a navy blue suit with contrasting accessories and wore a corsage of white camellias and pink hyacinths. She was attended by her daughter, Miss Frances Mae Kelly, who wore a gray suit with pink camellias. John Atchison of Redondo Beach attended the bridegroom as best man.

Among the wedding guests was Miss Frances Pokruth of Cleveland, Ohio, who flew to California for the ceremony and will remain for a week's visit. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey entertained at the Inn at a luncheon for 16 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey will receive their friends at the Broadway address in Redondo Beach.

Mothersinger Rehearsal Date Changed

Mrs. S. F. Wiley, Tenth District PTA music chairman, announces the next rehearsal of the Tenth District Mothersingers has been changed from March 17 to 9:45 a.m. Friday, March 10, at 1205 West Pico boulevard, Room 308. She urges all PTA mothersingers to take advantage of the excellent direction given by William Hartshorn. This chorus will join with combined PTA Mothers' choruses of the State and sing at the National Convention of Parents and Teachers under the leadership of Nancy Pauline Turner. Rehearsals will be at 9:45 a.m. Friday, March 3, Friday, March 31, and Wednesday, April 12, at 251 North Hill street.
