

Spaghetti Dinner Next CDA-Sponsored Project

A brilliant review of "The Confessions of St. Augustine," presented by Mrs. Keith Beck, featured a meeting of Catholic Daughters of America study club Monday evening. This inspiring autobiography, written over 1500 years ago, was translated Mrs. Frank Forester was hostess to the study club group at her home, 1418 Fern avenue. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Next gathering on the Court's agenda is a spaghetti dinner at the parish hall Monday, February 27. Families and guests are welcome; reservations must be made by tonight. Dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30, according to Mrs. Joe Graziano, chairman.

Awards were made this week at Nativity Catholic School for the best entries in a poetry contest, sponsored by Court St. Catherine. Recipients of prizes for the best poems in their grades were: Nancy Farrell (4th grade), Angels Eyes; Kathleen Geraghty (5th grade), Prayer; Betty Jessome (6th grade), To One I Love; Mary Cullen (7th grade), A Wonderful Thought; Shirley Deringer (8th grade), Queen of the Rosary; Bette Jessome's and Mary Cullen's entries, adjudged the best in their respective divisions, were sent on to State CDA headquarters for further competition. Mrs. Frank Farrell was chairman of the local contest.

Mrs. T. T. Babbitt, grand regent, Misses Rosa and Katherine Ortman, Mmes. J. J. MacDonald, Frank Gately and Frank Farrell represented the local court at a lovely affair in Compton Thursday evening. The banquet and program marked the silver anniversary of Court Compton.

Welcome Daughter

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Fouts of 1943 W. 236th street, Torrance, who are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Saturday, February 18.

Born in San Pedro Hospital, the little girl weighed seven pounds 11 ounces and was named Susan Terra Fouts.

One of the struggles a parent has is to keep a boy real and at the same time in one piece.

Seaside

(Continued from Page 18) make expensive looking, modern purses, slippers or cases. If you want to tool copper the instructor will show you how to make ornamental cigarette, jewel and card boxes.

Textile painting, too, is something you may want to learn. Dresses, aprons, tablecloths and napkins may be finished with any design you may choose, even those taken from cartoons and magazines. You may study one or all three of these crafts, during these lessons. These classes are each Monday evening from 7 until 10 o'clock.

Kindergarten Mothers Are Tea Guests

A tea for mothers of the new kindergartners at Harbor City School was an event of Thursday in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Marvin Scott was in charge and Mrs. Kathryn Cragg and Winston Scott, principal, were introduced and gave brief talks as did Miss Vera Fisher, school nurse, whose topic was "Health Habits." Mrs. Howard McPeak, membership chairman of the Harbor City PTA, was present to obtain members for the association.

Mrs. William Tregarthen and Mrs. Lowell Benfer served refreshments.

The second of a series of kidnap breakfasts was another event to benefit Harbor City PTA when Mrs. W. E. Dana opened her home for the social affair.

Approximately 30 were served during the morning; proceeds will be used to defray PTA convention expenses.

Vera Hampton Presented With Gift

A pin and beautiful press book were presented to Vera Hampton, past Pocahontas of Chicopee Council 297, Degree of Pocahontas, Monday evening. The presentation was made by Hazel Newey in behalf of the council.

Presiding was Pocahontas Opal Hatzenbuehler in the California Hall.

Concluding a delightful evening when Dr. Etta Woods and Daisy Pearson of Naomi Council 113 of San Pedro were welcome guests, Lois Bowling, Eva Brooks and Martha Silcott served refreshments.

The next regular meeting of the Chicopee Council will be held Monday evening, March 6, at California Hall at 8 o'clock.

Panhandlers Change Dance Date to 24th

The date for the Panhandlers dance to be held at Normont Terrace social hall this week has been changed, according to Mrs. Evelyn Vandette, publicity chairman.

Previously arranged for Saturday night, February 25, plans now call for the party to be held on Friday evening, February 24.

MUSEUM OFFERS FILM PROGRAM FILM ON FORESTS

The future of America's forests with their vital resources of timber and wildlife is the subject of a group of six documentary films to be presented at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Titles of the films, a number of which are in dramatic color, are as follows: "Everyman's Empire," "Guardians of the Wild," "Timber and Totem Poles," "Smoke Jumpers," "Bill for the Future" and "Then It Happened."

Admission to the programs, which are given in the museum's second floor lecture hall, is free.
