Open House Marks 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Smith, of 2010 Martina avenue celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon with an open house for 65 Torrance and out-of-town relatives and friends. A buffet supper was served in the evening.

The popular couple, who have made Torrance their home for the past 21 years, exchanged nuptial vows in Inglewood, Stuart, and Nathan (Skipper). Mr. Smith is Los Angeles Times dealer for Torrance, Lomita and adjoining communities.

Mrs. Smith, who received her guests in a printed, silk afternoon dress complemented with a corsage of gardenias, was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Smith of Torrance, and Miss Frances Poston, fiancée of her son, Stuart Smith.

Mint Sale Campaign Extended

Competition among the Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club girls is at high point in the Mint Drive since word has gone out that each member who sells 12 boxes or more will be an honored guest at a theater party. The party will be held at the Loma Theater, 5528 Santa Monica boulevard, on February 13, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

The mint sale is a money making drive by the Camp Fire Girls to raise funds for the extension of the Camp Fire program. The increased demands by parents and girls for Camp Fire groups makes this drive to supplement the budget necessary.

Because of the response of the public to the Candy Mint Sale has been so enthusiastic, the drive has been extended to February 6.

Seaside... ..Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

One of the highlights of the week was the surprise shower given for Jane Pratt, jointly by Isabel Gaul and Frankie Barth. A delicious ham luncheon was served and there were five tables of canasta, with 21 present.

For a while Sunday evening it looked as though the shower had been planned too late, as Jane was hurried to the hospital, but it turned out to be a false alarm and she was present at the party in her honor Monday afternoon. However, Tuesday morning at 4:20 the "Parents" were presented with a seven pound, one ounce baby girl.

It seems that stork showers seem to be in vogue the last few weeks; Edne Rosenberger, and Bertha Johnson, co-hosted at a shower in honor of Betty Shott last Wednesday. (This was one that was a complete surprise to the honored guest.) There were 17 present and four fates of canasta were in play with prizes for high and low.

Refreshments were decorated cup cakes and ice cream.

Mary Conover, with her sister Mrs. F. W. Stieber of Baltimore, Md., and her brother, Bob, who had a very enjoyable week; they left Monday for San Diego, returning Saturday evening. They stayed with the B. A. Gillies of San Diego, then drove down into Mexico, first Tijuana, then Ensenada. They attended the jai-alai games, then after returning to their hosts' home, they visited the Palomar Observatory.

Everyone is waiting expectantly for the next clue in our Jingle Contest, so here it is, the Jingle so far:

First I had two, now I have one,
That's a clue in a song, also in gun,
With a cook and a deacon, a bright-colored fly,
The rumors go merrily rolling by,
In almost every ship at sea,
You will find the likes of me,
(Now for the new clue.)
For the light raising rind, I had a hand,
But neither bid nor made a slam,
There, that should narrow it down for you. Don't forget to include your 25 cents with your guess. Then give it to your block captain.

It certainly would be a good idea to set aside an emergency fund in our association treasury to take care of things such as happened this past week. We never know when something like that may happen to any of us and it would be an advantage to have a sum available for such emergencies.

We understand that little Bergitta Ecklund is getting along fine but she has lost four fingers of her right hand. Our heart goes out to her but we are glad she is such a brave little girl. The family is extremely grateful for the kindness of all their friends in S. R. as well as H. R.

Her father has had offers of employment through the publicity given them. Whoever is fortunate enough to employ Mr. Ecklund, will find that they have a very conscientious and promising engineer working for them.

Mrs. Lois Greenwood has agreed to take the position as "Major" for the Red Cross drive in this area and will appreciate any volunteers especially in Seaside Heights. Please call her at FR 5-1100.

We would like to welcome the new residents, David and Dorothy Hurford who have moved into the Carty home at 6427 Reese Road.

They have three lovely children, Jeffrey 6, Diane 4, and Barry 3.
Formerly from Cincinnati, O., they have been in California only a very short time, living in Hollywood Riviera since August. David is a salesman for Standard Pressed Steel Co.

Our intermediate and senior Girl Scout troops have plans for two camping trips this year. Four days of their Easter vacation will be spent at Camp Pajarito (Angeles Crest) in a lovely cabin belonging to our Los Angeles Council. This will be preparation for a more primitive type of camping to take place for eight days this summer, possibly at Crystal Lake.

It will be necessary for the girls to borrow some equipment for this trip, such as tents, army tents if possible, some cooking equipment, large lanterns, etc. If you have anything that the girls could use, please contact me at FR 2-1820.

The camp at Pajarito was made possible through the sale of cookies each year. It costs each girl but 20 cents per night of the last 50 years will be worn by the cast.

An honorary life membership will be presented to an outstanding person in the community. Refreshments will be served.

Everyone in our community and Hollywood Riviera will want to be present at the official dedication of our school this Sunday, February 5. There will be Open House from two to four p.m. The formal dedication will take place at three p.m.

Something in the way of personal observation:
Television is rapidly growing up—perhaps too rapidly. It is getting to the place where we can't just sit back and be satisfied with any type of program as long as it is entertaining.

Even when our set is turned off, I hear repercussions, as my two and a half year old son gallops through the house with a bandanna over his face, gun in each hand, (one isn't enough) blazing away at imaginary cowboys. Or, falling on his face as a neighbor child, (also two and a half), bang, bang at him with his two guns.

I suddenly came to the realization that this is the great medium of entertainment that we had such hopes for, that we had expected would be such an aid to visual education.

Let the children have some good "Cowboy" movies but let's have more programs of the "Good Deeder" type, programs that instill fine music and artistic values.

Let's have good movies such as "Little Men," presented at a time that they can be enjoyed by children.

Let's have good, murder mysteries, etc. for adult viewing only.

Television is a wonderful innovation so let's take advantage of it. We can appeal through our Women's clubs, PTA and other civic organizations and we will be heard.

We too, can have some control over these fast growing "infrants" by censoring the programs our children watch. There are many good programs being produced and if we just take the trouble to turn our dials we will be surprised at the many educational as well as entertaining features being shown.

Here's for better "looking."

HAMBURGER with a HALO

Our hamburger is so pure... so good... it wears a halo of quality. It's all chopped beef with a grand-tasting flavor that makes it a family favorite. And it's economical, too. No other meat we could suggest would give as much down-right good eating at such a downright low price. Serve it in every recipe that calls for chopped beef, and you'll make a good meal taste better.
