Prowlers Keep Cops on Jump

A sudden rash of prowlers kept police telephones busy last weekend as residents in various parts of town reported various men creeping across lawns and peering in windows.

One woman, Mrs. Ben Iwason, 2421 1/2 Ocean avenue, said she called to one man lurking outside her bedroom window Friday night and threatened to shoot him.

"Go ahead and shoot," was his retort, she said.

Other prowlers were reported by Mrs. Ruth Wallace at 903 Cota avenue, A. I. King at 17203 Glenburn avenue, and Mrs. E. J. Lechnis at 23320 Falena avenue.

WASH CLUTCH SLIPPING Starting in second gear is a practice of many drivers. It is not necessarily a bad practice but if it necessitates slipping the clutch it should be abandoned at once. The modern clutch bears a heavy enough burden as it is.

College Instructor To Conduct Tour of Hawaiian Islands

Stanley F. Wilson, English instructor at El Camino College, has been offered the opportunity of a twenty-day tour of Hawaii by the National Educational Association.

A chartered United Airliner strato-cruiser will carry educators from all over the United States to their destination. The plane will leave Los Angeles International airport on July 16.

Besides the island of Hawaii, the trip will include a tour of the other major Hawaiian islands.

Wilson, who with his wife toured Central America last summer, wrote a series of articles for local papers describing his trip. This is his third year as English instructor at El Camino.

Wife of Former Merchant Here Dies Shopping

Mrs. Eva Koch, 42, wife of Morris Koch, former partner in the Star Furniture Company here, and now head of a firm in Stockton, died of a heart attack while shopping in Stockton last Friday, her brother-in-law, Jack Koch learned.

She was well known here during the eight years she lived here until they moved to Stockton four years ago. Her husband was prominent in the Torrance Kiwanis and Lions' clubs.

Services will be held Sunday at Gromat's Mortuary in Los Angeles. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Ronny, 18.

W. B. Kalbfleisch Attends Father's s Funeral in Tulare

W. B. Kalbfleisch, Torrance attorney, left yesterday for Tulare where he will attend the funeral this afternoon of his father, B. Kalbfleisch, who died there Thursday. He is expected to return Friday.

Drunk Drivers Get $150 Fines

Identical fines of $150 or 30 days in jail were meted out this week to two drunken drivers by Municipal Judge Otto B. Willett. Both drivers' driving licenses were suspended for 90 days.

The offenders were Harold Bruce Cameron, 42, of 802 Sartori avenue, and Francisco Padilla Baca, of Norwalk. Cameron was arrested at El Prado and Cravens avenue Sunday evening, and Baca was arrested at Cota avenue and Dominguez street.

Two Cars Stolen

Two automobiles were stolen from Torrance residents last week, police reported. Frank Schatz, 8509 Wiley Post avenue, told police his car was stolen from his home last Friday.

A. J. Settling, 146 West 214th street, reported his car was stolen from his home Sunday night.
