The girls were served refreshments prior to retiring, and also breakfast in the morning with Mr. Smart as their host. Attending were Arlene Smart, Jane Moffatt, Jimmy Pauline Matthews, Pat Garrison, Ellen Koch, Maxine Bohannon, Charlene Grace, Betty Peterson, Janet Williamson and Dorothy Gray.

A feature of the group's regular meeting recently at the Methodist Church was a demonstration of Gail Richards' cosmetics by Mrs. Louise Sheldon.

Seaside Ranchos
By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

My head is going around in a whirl with so many things being planned for our spring and summer recreation. Las Vecinas, Home Owners Association, Girl Scout Camping plans, Brownie activities, Cub Scout meetings, Boy Scout meetings, Evening school, PTA programs and the hobby groups of Las Vecinas. With the varied activities being offered in our community, we have our choice of the groups in which we would like to take part.

Among the hobby groups, Las Vecinas Garden Club is planning a program of interest to us all at this time of the year. Tuesday, March 7 is the date, 1 p.m. is the time, Hollywood Riviera Beach Club, the place.

The program will consist of floral displays made up by members to be judged by Mrs. Carlton Paul and Mrs. Paul Barth. The speaker will be Mr. Eshizu of the Sunny Slope "Mum" Gardens, who will talk on chrysanthemum and carnation culture. There will be color slides on chrysanthemums and carnation blooms on display.

At 1 o'clock luncheon will be served with the program following at 2. Tickets will be $1 including luncheon and nursery care for the small fry. Tickets may be purchased from your depot. Reservations will be necessary.

Our Brownie troop is making many plans for Spring and Summer. One of their recent activities was a Valentine party for the Brownie troop in Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Bud Mewborn who is the leader and Mrs. Rickman, co-leader, have chosen as their meeting place, the Home Economics room of the school. The troop meets each Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

We see that Benton McNary has a new position. He is helping the Moores at the store.

Our Cub Scouts Pack meeting was held last Friday at the school cafeteria. The boys showed their versatility by the skits presented; each pack put on a different skit, one about Abe Lincoln and another about George Washington.

One thing very noticeable about the program was the number of parents present. This is something that insures the success of any youth group, the interest of the parents. It doesn't matter how that interest is shown; they may take an active part in the groups program either as a consultant or a leader, or they may be just "available" for refreshments, transportation or an occasional party. But most important, they must show interest in their child as an individual as far as encouraging them at home in their badge activities, if they are a member of one of our Scout troops, or in their program if they are a member of any of the other youth groups.

Another thing parents can do to help is to take any courses offered for those working with youth, even if they are not interested in becoming leaders. Committee members of these groups should have training too.

There are still some Girl Scout cookies left. If you are planning something where you are serving light refreshments, they are your answer; or if you want some for your family, they keep very well so order a few boxes now. They may be purchased from any of the girls.

Kickoff for the Red Cross Drive started Wednesday. Mrs. Lois Greenwood, major for this area, hopes that when the people who have volunteered to solicit, visit you, they will be well received.

A great deal of interest is being shown in our new Jingle contest; the prizes are worth working for and the proceeds will benefit all of us.

And feathers floating down,

After the sun goes down.

My little flower
Now you have me in your power.

And get no pay
But I held a pay

Women's Council of Las Vecinas met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ken Niles in Hollywood Riviera. As youth chairman for Las Vecinas Mrs. Niles conducted the meeting. This council is composed of women and men who are interested in youth groups in both Seaside Ranchos and Hollywood Riviera. They hope to coordinate the efforts of these different groups by helping them to help themselves. In other words, by standing behind them and giving them assistance when needed. They also plan to ar-

Thayne Home Is Setting For Fly-Up

Eight Brownies of Troop 510 became Girl Scouts of the intermediate class when they flew up in a lovely ceremony Tuesday, February 22, at the home of Mrs. Pearl Thayne.

Both the Brownie Troop and the Girl Scout Troop which is in the process of formation, are sponsored by the Shoestring Strip Association.
