Hilarity Marks Seaside PTA Fathers Night Meet

On Thursday evening "Father" really came into his own at the Seaside PTA meeting. Fathers were greeted at the door by two beautiful damsels who measured and assessed them a penny for each inch of waist line, the proceeds to be used to buy cups and saucers for the PTA. Mr. Nix of Seaside Heights won, as prize for the largest waist, a ceramic loving cup, suitably inscribed, and a box of reducing capsules.

The flag salute was led by Earl Eckert, and Mrs. G. H. Miller read a poem entitled "Fathers" as an inspirational message. Mrs. Paul Roetiger presided over a short business meeting and received the report of the nominating committee, read by Mrs. Frank Linscott. In the election which followed, Mrs. Raymond Hole was elected president for 1950-51. Named to serve as vice presidents are Mrs. H. D. Horne, Mrs. Fred Ropquet, Mr. J. E. Satterlee, and Mrs. Donald Stewart. Mrs. Alex Rosen will serve as recording secretary, Mrs. Arthur Hackney as financial secretary, Mrs. Fred chairman, failed to find his notes in a well-stuffed notebook, but did manage to report on schools (of fish), and Raymond-Hole reported that the board met on February 26 and "talked."

FORMER RESIDENT
 Mrs. Myrtle McManus of Los Angeles and formerly of Torrance visited friends here last weekend.

Mr. Roetiger later turned the meeting over to Harvey Spellman, who presented a program planned and directed by Marge Wiltse and Bill Beckman.

William Beckman, accompanied by his charming wife, sang two songs, "Friends" and "The Green Eyed Dragon." Al Yerkes, Paul Barth, Bud Mewborn and Paul Roetiger appeared in two clever skits, assisted by Bob Hyder and Dick Norman as prop men.

A barber shop quartet composed of Jack McDonald, Juan Mateo, Tom Mabin and Claud Perrel, entertained with songs and patter. It was a successful evening for "Father," who succeeded in side-stepping the dish-washing chore that followed the social hour.

Trio Rebekahs Observe Deputy's Official Visit

Trio Rebekahs met Wednesday evening with the Noble Grand, Mrs. Anna May LaBell, presiding.

As this was the official visit of the district deputy president, Mrs. Olive Veatch and her staff, special ceremonies were observed. Mrs. Veatch was escorted to the altar by the district deputy marshal, Mrs. Retta Nelson. Mrs. Veatch gave an instructive talk on the progress of the district during the past year.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Veatch and Mrs. Nelson were presented with lovely gifts of Fostoria glassware.

Plans were made to attend the courtesy evening to be held in Long Beach on March 23, with the following as special courtesy officers: recording secretary, Hattie Schroeder; musician, Ruth Deems and left altar supporter, Marie Aris.

Mrs. Ona Pence, vice grand, announced that she will be calling on members or donations to a "Rag Drive" she is launching.

District initiation will be held in Compton on March 31. Mrs. Pence will assist with this work. All Rebekahs are invited to attend.

PORTLAND VISIT
 Mrs. Mary Towler of 1828 Andro avenue plans to return to her home following a visit in Portland, Ore., with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lee Stecker. Mrs. Stecker will embark presently for two years' stay in Japan, where her husband is stationed.

More than one-third of the movie theaters in the U. S. are located in towns of 2500 or less.
