

Clousing Home to Be Tea Setting

More than 200 invitations have been issued by the Y.W.C.A. committee to the tea they are giving this Sunday in honor of their new members. The W. O. Clousings are opening their beautiful new home at 1542 Post avenue for this event. Tea hours will be 2 to 5 o'clock. Receiving as hostesses in addition to members of the Torrance Committee are members of the San Pedro Area Y.W.C.A. board of directors, of which Mrs. Otis Blackstone is president. Among the most recent new members are Mrs. Dorothy Allen, Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink, Mrs. Mary Tooms, Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, Mrs. David Howard, Mrs. C. Soderstrom of Rolling Hills and Mrs. Hilma Snyder of North Redondo. Credit for recruiting Mrs. Snyder goes to another new "Y" member, Mrs. Clara Conner.

Mrs. Marvin Kent, chairman of the Torrance "Y" who are interested in the "Y" to enroll this week so they can share in the successful membership drive and receive invitations to the tea.

MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE JOHN GEZELIUS, JR.

MISS JANE SCOTTON BECOMES BRIDE

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was the setting for one of the loveliest weddings of the spring season when Miss Jane Edythe Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Byron Scott of 1438 El Prado, repeated vows to become the bride of Mr. Laurence John Gezelius Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laurence Gezelius of Inglewood. Rev. Arthur A. Bello, rector, officiated in the presence of 200 guests.

The lovely bride was escorted up the flower-outlined aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her exquisite white bridal gown was of chin-chilla lace and satin fashioned with marquisette yoke, long sleeves and train. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, bouvardia, and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Lawrence Beck of Lomita was her cousin's matron of honor wearing chateau lace and baby orchids. The maid of honor, Miss Wilma Jean McBride, wore fuchsia faille complemented with a bouquet of yellow carnations and gladioli.

Morton Wolfson of Los Angeles was best man and ushers were Richard Beck of Lomita, and Thomas Keptner of Inglewood.

Proceeding the ceremony, Lloyd G. Jones, baritone, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception which immediately followed in Parish House, Mrs. Scott received her guests in emerald green crepe with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Gezelius attended in pink chiffon with matching hat and a corsage of brown orchids.

The lovely all-white floral decorations used in the reception room created a pretty setting for the candlelight bride's table, where a four-tiered wedding cake, encircled with white camellias was cut.

After the bride had cut the first slice, Mrs. Fred W. Sandstrom served the wedding cake and Mrs. Dean L. Sears of Torrance, and Mrs. Robert Stevens, of Los Alamitos, cousin of the bridegroom, poured.

Registering guests' names was Mrs. Albert Palmer (Arlene Atwood).

Following a honeymoon trip to San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Gezelius will establish their home in Long Beach.

Reception arrangements were completed by Mrs. D. A. Murphy, who was assisted by members of St. Cecilia's Guild.

With every woman, to love a man is to feel that she must positively know just where he is going as soon as he is out of her sight.—F. Marion Crawford.

News is anything that makes a woman say, "For heaven's sake!"—Ed Howe.

Clubwoman Heads High School PTA

Election of officers featured the March business meeting of Torrance High School PTA held Tuesday evening in the school library.

Serving for the ensuing year will be Mrs. Grover C. Vandeventer, president; Mrs. John L. Stephens, first vice president; Charles Wallace, second vice president; Mrs. J. K. Burchfield, recording secretary; Mrs. John W. Beeman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elmer Moon, treasurer; Mrs. John E. Popovich, auditor; and Mrs. Edward Rhone, historian.

"Children's Vision" was the topic used by the guest speaker, Dr. Marion Eakin, M.D., who emphasized that "In vision, more difficulties can be corrected than can be cured." Dr. Eakin stressed that parents should check children's eyes, as teeth are checked, before damage is done. That lighting in schools and homes is a definite factor in eye strain, was pointed out by the speaker.

Accompanied by Mrs. Howard Wood, Abe Milstein, school director of music, played clarinet solos, including "Medley of Irish Tunes for St. Patrick's Day," "Promenade" (Claris), and "Arabesque" (Debussy).

Attention was called by the president to the Torrance High School-sponsored Variety Show to be held in the school auditorium tomorrow evening. The date of the Adult Orchestra concert also was announced, for March 30.
