

Harry and Lois Greenwood entertained last Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cross from Eugene, Ore. They made the rounds of many glamour spots in Hollywood such as Ciro's, the Brown Derby and the Town House.

This week they have as a house guest Al Ackley from Yakima, Washington, who will later be joined by his wife.

There is a small cowboy who is very sad these days, Timmy Roettger misplaced an almost new "Hoppy" set consisting of chaps, guns and holster. If you should happen to run across a "strange set" in your vicinity, please let the Roettgers know and they will be eternally grateful.

Our Senior Girl Scouts were fortunate enough to be invited to a dance in Gardena at the Teen-Age Center last Saturday evening. They had quite a nice time and coincidental was the fact that among the Mariners, Explorers and Sea Scouts present, were the Sea Scouts troop became acquainted with last summer at the camp at Catalina.

Everyone who attended the box social at the Hermosa Biltmore last Saturday evening had a grand time. Among the many good foods in the attractive boxes were fried chicken and rabbit.

Entertainment in the form of singing by Jean Cottrell was enjoyed by all.

Mary Conover's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson left last Wednesday after a stay of many months here. While I was writing this I got a telephone call informing me that there had been an auto accident near Indianapolis and Mary's mother had suffered a pelvic injury that would keep her in the hospital there for a few weeks.

Since she has no acquaintances there, I am sure that she would appreciate hearing from her friends here in Seaside Ranchos in the form of letters and cards to Methodist Hospital on North Capitol avenue, Indianapolis, Ind.

The Tom McNarys attended a housewarming at the new home of his nephew, Mr. Gene Hart in Van Nuys, last Saturday.

A number of our people went to a square dance near Culver City last Saturday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Shookency, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Farnum, Mr. and Mrs. Gill Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Leobetter. It was reported that they all had a good time.

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN OBSERVE GIRLS' WEEK

About 50 members and guests Monday evening enjoyed the dinner prepared by the ladies of the Methodist Church for the National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance. The dinner was featured by the reports of those high school seniors who had been observers in the various businesses and offices of industrial Torrance.

During "Girls Week" Grace Garland reported on her activities while in the Mode O' Day; Vivian Hazzard spent a day with Parrish Stationers; Joan King and Joan Demonet visited Torrance Memorial Hospital and have decided to make nursing their careers; Jean Hammond spent a day with Emma Roberts in her beauty salon; Mary Jo Tillotson and Joan Melvin were initiated into the local police department under the guidance of Lucille Stroh; Donna Elliott was shown the mechanics of buying and selling at the Gay Shop; Sharon Hacker spent an interesting day at the Torrance Health Center; Ebba Warren absorbed much information during her visit to National Home Appliance Shop; Barbara Delsigne was a guest of the Torrance National Bank and Joyce Michels spent a profitable day at the Torrance Herald.

Mr. George Zavislan, director of music in the high school, presented the A Cappella Choir in six numbers, with Miss Anita Menni, accompanist. The choir is well trained and was received with much enthusiasm. Miss Menni prevailed upon to play Waltz in A Flat by Chopin.

Mrs. Gene Wood, director of Girl Scout Troop 1161, which is sponsored by the National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance, told of the work being done by the girls. Miss Harriet Spencer, president, announced the election meeting of Bay Section, which is to be held in Hawthorne Sunday, March 26, at 9:00 a.m. Anyone interested in attending should make reservations with her.

Mrs. Gertrude Irons, "On to San Francisco" chairman, announced that space for advertisements in the souvenir number of the Biennial Convention program is now on sale and anyone desiring to reserve space should arrange with her for this before the end of March, which is the deadline.

Misses Harriet Hardy and Helene Scott were co-hostesses for the dinner meeting.

Next regular business meeting will be held Monday evening, April 3 at 7:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Aylene Moore, 1908 Marina avenue, with Mrs. Frances Lee acting as co-hostess. This will be a very important meeting as the nominating committee will be elected and all members are urged to attend.

General Electric Joins Torrance Tee-Vee in Simply Saying to You Folks --

THANKS!

It is impossible for mere words to express things which are in our hearts! When you try to write them . . . they just don't come out.

But we think you realize the hopes and aspirations we have of doing a real job of serving the citizens of Torrance and Lomita . . . and to find that you have been so generous of your best wishes . . . your welcome . . . your expressions of thanks that such a store as ours has come to Torrance . . . yes and for the many sets you have already bought . . . all of these are beyond repayment. In the years to come we will try to merit this confidence.
