

Board Meet Set by PTA

Halldale PTA board members will meet Friday, March 31, at 9:30 a.m. at the school. Final preparations for the Doughnut Drive to be held April 3-7 will be made and Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, will outline the agenda for the coming month.

An Easter party for the children will take place Friday afternoon, March 31. Under the supervision of Mrs. Fred Schmitt, room mother chairman, the room mothers will hostess the affair.

AT MOUNTAIN CABIN

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Masie of 1318 Engracia avenue spent several days this past week at their Big Bear cabin.

Enjoy the Television

Brownie Troop, No. 315, sponsored by the Harbor City PTA, enjoyed a television show at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Matthews Thursday. Assisted by Mrs. Carl Gregory, the girls were served popcorn, punch and cookies.

WEEKEND VISIT

Accompanied by her house guest, Mrs. Vanda Phillips, of Griswold, Iowa, Mrs. W. C. Moyer of 1632 Fern avenue, motored to Santa Barbara where the ladies enjoyed a weekend visit with Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Percy.

Easter Is Holiday Time For Children

The entire school will observe Easter holidays on Thursday and Friday with school closed until the following Monday, April 10. The Parent-Teacher Council of the school will meet this afternoon at 1 o'clock and all members are urged to attend.

Parents Are Guests of Bethel 137

Mothers and Fathers Night was observed by members of Lomita Bethel 137, International Order of Job's Daughters, Friday night with Honored Queen Jeanne Hamilton assisted by Janet Hood, senior princess, and Eena Sandstrom, junior princess presiding.

In honor of the parents assembled, Una Mae Brunskill, Carolyn Powers, Janet Hood, Mary Peterson, Marilyn Johnson and Dorothy Whippo sang "In the Gloaming," accompanied at the piano by Marilyn Spain. Refreshments were in charge of Una Mae Brunskill.

BUSY SCHEDULE SET BY TRIO REBEKAHS

Mrs. Anna Mae Isbell, noble grand of Trio Rebekah Lodge 1522, presided at the meeting held Wednesday evening in California Hall, which featured election of delegates to the State Assembly in Long Beach early in May. She welcomed as a special guest Mrs. Ethel Palmer of Seattle, past noble grand.

Delegates are: Mrs. Olive Veatch, Mrs. Belva S. Brase and Mrs. Reta Nelson. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed highlighted by a skit titled "The Daughters of Senayler Colfax," presented by Mrs. Ora Brown, hostess chairman, who was assisted by Fronia Branch, Ada

Anderson and Ellen Smith. The gown worn in the skit by Mrs. Bernard was first worn at a reception for President McKinley in Los Angeles in 1903.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. Rebekahs are invited to a "district" initiation of candidates at Compton Lodge tomorrow evening. Mrs. Olive Veatch and her staff made their official visit at Compton Friday evening. Mrs. Veatch will make her official visit to Angeles No. Lodge, Los Angeles on April 7 and at Dr. Mar Lodge, Long Beach on April 4.

Girl Scout Activities Enlarged

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 391, sponsored by Narbonne High School, will attend an Easter Egg party at Peck's Park in San Pedro Saturday morning and during the afternoon they will enjoy skating at a nearby rink. At noon they will partake of a picnic lunch at the park.

The girls are working for their badges, which they will receive at the Court of Awards in May and on Wednesday afternoons they are attending a Junior First Aid class.

Mrs. Earl Allman is the leader of the troop and her assistants are Mrs. Caroline Bartlett and Mrs. Leslie Stone.

Lomita PTA

The Parent-Education class, sponsored by Lomita Elementary PTA, held its first class of a ten-week series on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Beatrice Woodbridge, popular instructor of these classes in the harbor area, is in charge. Child care is provided at the school for the classes, held on Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

PRESS IS HONORED BY PTA

Local Parent-Teacher officers, chairmen and representatives of the press were among the 500 assembled in the Los Angeles Biltmore Bowl recently for the annual courtesy luncheon given by Tenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Adrian O'Conner, district publicity bureau manager, presided and introduced Mrs. Marvin, district president, who spoke on the new PTA Health Center now under construction at 21st and Grand avenue, Los Angeles. Other speakers were Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, superintendent of Los Angeles City Schools, and Sheldon M. Hayden, director of public speaking at Santa Monica City College.

Attending from this area were Mrs. R. P. Kellogg, J. R. Jones, A. D. Scott, representing Orange Street PTA; E. G. Spratt, Don Wolf and J. J. Millard, Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council; Herman Ludwig, Harbor City PTA; Joe Stahl, F. L. Markley, Lomita Elementary PTA; W. E. McAllister, E. M. Bernardin, Halldale Avenue PTA; Minot Rugg, J. M. Skiffic, R. G. Mayer, H. W. Nansel, Narbonne PTA, Mrs. John Garner of Torrance, Tenth District board; Mrs. E. Irene Howe, society editor of the Lomita News; and Mrs. J. McKinney of Lomita, San Pedro News-Pilot representative.

Lomita Lodge to Present Drill Work

Delora Royal Neighbors, Lomita Camp 10137, will exemplify floor work when the local drill team is presented at the District convention of the lodge in Long Beach April 11. During the afternoon session the local camp will draw the charter. The convention will be held in the Municipal Auditorium. Representing the local camp as official delegate to the State Royal Neighbors convention slated for April 17 to 19 in Oakland will be Janice Herren. Mildred Taylor, hospital chairman, was responsible for the elderly ladies in the ward at Harbor General Hospital being remembered on St. Patrick's Day. Attractive favors were made by Mrs. Taylor and taken to the hospital for an added decorative touch for their trays in observance of the day.

Mrs. Florence Markley, orator, and 13 other members motored to Bellflower Thursday night to take part in the Bellflower Royal Neighbors Courtesy Night ceremonies. Pat McBride, Grace Morgison and Lena Brooks were among those seated as courtesy officers.

Easter Egg Hunt Held by Brownies

Brownie Troop 1086 held an Easter egg hunt at the home of the leader, Mrs. Grace Thorpe. The Brownies were then escorted through the Thorpe Hatchery and each was presented with two baby chicks. Birthdays of Gloria Thorpe, Jackie Poole and Norma Gibson were celebrated and Norma Gibson presented them with a lovely decorated cake. Shirley and Sandy Richards furnished the eggs for the hunt.
