The six young ladies will play an important part in the spring operetta to be presented tomorrow night in the high school auditorium. (Herald photo).

Postal Receipts Rise
Postal receipts in Torrance for April were $14,651.25 this year as compared to $11,373.47 in 1949, according to figures released this week by Mrs. Clara Conner, postmaster.
This is an increase of $3,277.78 or 29 per cent, and is a general reflection of the growth of the city, Mrs. Conner said.

Brother of Local Man Promoted by Kaiser
Hal Babbitt has been elected a vice-president of Kaiser-Frazier Corporation, according to word received here by his brother, Tom Babbitt, past commander of the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post.

'Sunbonnet Girl' To Be Staged For Public Tomorrow Evening

A musical high for the school year will be reached this afternoon and tomorrow night with the presentation of Torrance High School's first spring operetta "Sunbonnet Girl" at the high school auditorium.

This operetta, starring Elaine Rehwoldt, Jean Adams, and Leonard Reid, will be played this afternoon at 1:15 o'clock and tomorrow night at 8:15. Today's performance is for high school students only, but the public is cordially invited to the tomorrow's presentation. Plenty of adult tickets are available at 50 cents apiece. Students who wish to accompany their parents to the Friday night show may do so for 35 cents.

A cast of more than 150 has worked hard for six weeks under the direction of George Zaystian, Mr. Korn and Mr. Dunn to bring this spring extravaganza to the public.

Special features galore will deck the stage of "Sunbonnet Girl." Not the least of these will be the costumed dancers going through waltzes, can cans, Virginia reels and square dances.

Mr. Dunn's prize winning Tartar orchestra will add to the gaiety with rhythms, ballads and dreamy waltzes punctuated by solos from instrumentalists, singers, ensemble groups and a full chorus.

Serving as a background for all this are the stage scenery and sets painted by Mrs. Evangeline Morros and her art class and built by Mr. Strohm's wood shop classes.
Besides the first three players, "Sunbonnet Girl" will present in its dramatic cast Ruth McDougal, Rudy Flores, Betty Braum, Dick Armend, Ray Parish, Norman Stock, Pat Dunmeyer, Eldora Brown, Doris Mae Forth, Rody Bowen, Ina Babick and Emily Burchfield.
