FIRST APPEARANCE SET FOR MUNICIPAL BAND

The initial appearance of the Torrance Municipal Band will take place tonight in the Torrance Civic auditorium when the band presents its first concert since being organized some weeks ago. The band is composed of professional and non-professional musicians from Torrance and the harbor area.

The program will feature Jonathan Murakami, cornetist, playing "Carnival of Venice" and Clem Hutchinson, clarinetist, playing "Au Clair De La Lune" with symphonic variations. Other selections on the program will include "First Suite for Band," "Cowboy Rhapsody," "Aguero," "Die Fledermaus," "Come, Sweet Death" and a French overture entitled "Carnival," which was especially arranged for this concert by Lucien Chaillet, well-known arranger and conductor of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

Edison Co. Opens New Office Here

New office for the Southern California Edison Company were opened at 1427 Marcelina, it was announced this week by L. E. Jenkins, district manager.

The new offices and facilities are designed to provide greater and better service to Edison customers in the Torrance area, Jenkins said.

The latest development in lighting and interior design have been employed in the remodeled office. The remodeling was done by Harold Guttenfelder and is in keeping with the growth and beauty of the community.

Wayne Lindner is in charge of the new offices. Inspection of the premises is encouraged by the Edison Company, Jenkins said Tuesday.
