

Seaside...

By Evelyn Hyder

The biggest affair socially last week was our Las Vecinas "April Showers Ball," a very successful dance. It was preceded by small gatherings at many homes where refreshments were served.

The dance itself was glamorous and at the same time entertaining because of the well-planned contests, prizes for the best headresses (made from flowers gathered in the participants' own yard) were won by Helen Schmitz and Bertha Johnson. The Charleston contest was won by the Harry Harmons.

Orchids this week should go to a group of women here in Seaside Rancho who have been giving their time and efforts for many weeks without recognition. They have been acting as hostesses and dancing partners for the boys in the Brentwood division at Sawtelle Hospital recently. They are: Mary Conover, Margaret Roettger, Ruth Hanover, Virginia Knouse and Wilma Mewborn.

Wynne Spelman, Mary Conover and Margaret Roettger also drive for the Red Cross Motor Corps, driving veterans, Canteen workers, Gray Ladies and hostesses to their destinations.

The Arthur Arratis had quite a lousiful last weekend when Mildred's brother Ray Conant, his wife Wynne and their three children visited them. Also their guest was Mildred's sis-

Our Girl Scout Mothers Club is planning a luncheon to be held at the Fish Shanty next Thursday noon. The troop's financial statement will be given and a report on the plans for summer camping will be discussed. The troop's committee as well as Brownie and Senior leaders will be invited.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mr. and Mrs. Club of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was held Monday evening. Those who attended from Seaside Rancho and played canasta or bridge were Bud and Winnie Mewborn, Jim and Chris Hall, Jim and Lynn Shildler and their house guests Jim's brother, Dr. Frederic Shildler and his wife from San Francisco.

We understand that Walter and Lola Harris of Sharynne Lane are now grandparents. I hope to have the particulars for you next week.

The only way in which women show superior intelligence to men is in their selecting their mates by character instead of looks.—DOROTHY DIX.

Silver Crest Rebekahs at Anniversary

Homecoming night at Silver Crest Lodge 255 was a recent event, held in celebration of the 43rd birthday of the organization.

At that time five new members were introduced by Noble Grand Esther Larrett. They were Rose Craig, Thelma Robinson, Mina Talbot, Doris Booth and Mary Helen Kospho. These new members were initiated at the District Deputy School of Instruction, held at Gold Crest Rebekah Lodge, El Segundo, last week, when the local lodge participated in the initiatory work.

Winifred Jones of Torrance has been installed as vice grand to fill in the unexpired term of Marjorie King, also of Torrance, who is ill.

It was announced that the Rebekah Assembly of California convention will be held in Long Beach Civic auditorium May 8-12.

PTA Board Sets Agenda for May Meet

The Halldale PTA board meeting will be held Monday, May 8, at 9:30 a.m. in the Halldale school.

Final arrangements for the style and hobby show to be presented at the May meeting of the PTA will be made, and the agenda for the month will be outlined by the president, Mrs. E. M. Bernardin.

A paper drive is slated for later in the month, and everyone is asked to save papers and magazines in preparation for the drive.

ATTEND PTA COUNCIL MEET

Mrs. Samuel Dow, president of 186th Street PTA, Mrs. Evelyn Gauley and Mrs. D. W. Ten Eyck attended the Gardena-Wilmington Council meeting and luncheon at the Denker Avenue School Friday.

Mrs. Dow, who is also president-elect, this week is attending the National PTA convention at Santa Cruz.

Love is the symbol of eternity.—ANNE LOUISE DE STAEL.

Bethel 50 Members at Robinson's

Job's Daughters of Bethel 50 who served on committees and attended choir practice Tuesday evening at the Sonoma avenue home of Mrs. Charlotte Robinson were:

Pat Clere, Mary Ann Lenton and Marietta Houston, progressive dinner tickets.

Lou Ann McFarland, Sandra Grubb, Gail Askins, Linda Lane, Janice Crabtree, Carol Campbell, Elizabeth Hedgecock, all of Torrance, and Donna Rose, of Gardena, choir.

WALTERIA ACTIVITIES

A delightful evening was enjoyed by friends and neighbors of Mrs. Glen Huntington, 24408 Los Cadenas avenue, honoring Mrs. Edward Moberg, the former Joyce Martip, of Norwalk.

The affair was a stork shower served in a room gaily decorated in pink and blue.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Moberg.

Mrs. Laughlin of 24240 Ocean avenue entertained at a luncheon for D. Boone Kirks, and Mesdames Robert Ziske, McNulty, Charles Martz, Snow, Gattison, Crauner, and B. J. Michols. The event was an informal meeting of the Walteria PTA executive board at which Mrs. McNulty, president-elect, ratified her staff for the ensuing year. The occasion also marked the birthdays of Mmes. McNulty, and Laughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson of Santa Ana visited Saturday with Mrs. Robert Ziske of 24232 Adolph street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ketterling made a quick trip Friday to their cabin in Lytle Creek Canyon.

What a pity human beings can't exchange problems. Everyone knows exactly how to solve the other fellow's.—OLIN MILLER.

In the end the things that count are the things you can't count.

Electronic Treatment for NEURITIS

THE AMERICAN WEEKLY of April 23, 1950, carried an interesting science article concerning the use of electronics in treating neuritis, rheumatism, and similar disorders. Although the use of electronic equipment for treating nerve disorders is relatively new, the office of Dr. Larson in Torrance has used the famous Lindquist Chrono-wave for more than a year. This machine is reputed to have a closer approach to the human nerve impulse than any device yet manufactured.

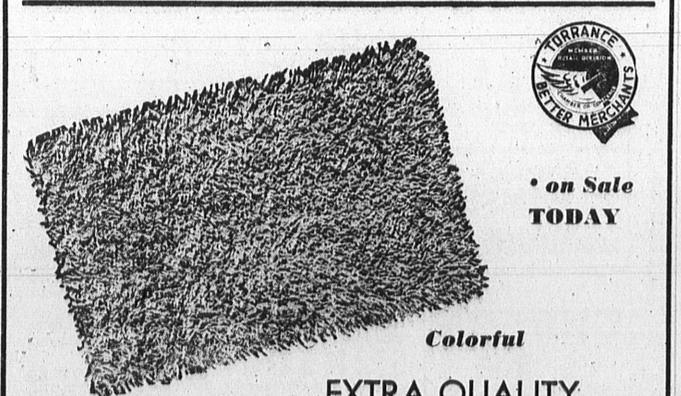

Contrary to general opinion, electronic treatments are not painful and many patients feel an immediate improvement after their first treatment.

The cause of neuritis must be found and eliminated before a cure can be made. Anything done to stop the pain by suppressing symptoms will be only palliative and temporary. Therefore a correct diagnosis and treatment is essential.

Call now for an appointment. Treatment charges are reasonable.
