

Mail It In! Urge Red Cross Campaign Heads

Mail it in! This was the appeal made this week in behalf of the 1950 Los Angeles Red Cross fund-raising campaign by Volunteer General Chairman Earle M. Jorgensen. He was referring to residents of this area who were not contacted by house-to-house or office-to-office canvassers during the height of the campaign, and he advised the directing of the 1950 Red Cross contribution to American Red Cross, Los Angeles Chapter, 1107 South Menlo avenue, Los Angeles 6. "We know that many geographic and business divisions were not called upon by our volunteer workers and we know that residents of this vicinity do want to do their part in enabling the chapter to go over the top," Jorgensen said. With the Geographic Division goal for Torrance set at $2000, Mrs. Gladys Westop, chairman, has expressed her sincere appreciation to all who assisted her in surpassing her campaign assignment in record time. The Commerce and Industry goal for this community this year has been placed at $200, and it is believed by the chairman, Otto A. Kresses, that this amount will have been subscribed when those who could not be reached by canvassers, realize that their contributions will swell the fund to the required figure.

Jim Shidler Heads 'Mr. Mrs.' Club

Officers who will serve the newly organized Mr. and Mrs. Club during the ensuing term were elected at a meeting held Monday evening in St. Andrew's Parish House. Chosen as president of the club, which is composed of young married couples in Torrance and vicinity, was James G. Shidler. Assisting on the staff are Mrs. Robert G. Leech (Pat Hall), secretary; and Robert S. Sleeth, Jr., Postmaster at WALTERIA, treasurer.

Card Party

Mrs. Howard Owen will serve as chairman for this evening's Catholic ladies weekly card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be procured at the door.

At the close of play, while scores are being checked, delicious refreshments will be served by Mrs. Owen and her committee, who are:

Miss Opal Yorker and Mesdames Howard Lander, Clarence Cole, Frank Forester, DeHaas, Alfred Kitto, James Dorigan, Albert Elder, Rose Morris, Annette Beck, W. R. Fenton, Thelma Graham, and Harrington.
