

A HIGHLAND FLING... Scotsman Pethley and son, Wee Jack, don kilts and pick up the bagpipes to get in practice for McMahan's big Kitchen Carnival tomorrow and Saturday.

McMahan's Furniture Announces Its Annual Kitchen Carnival

Bagpipes, modern kitchen ranges, radios, apple-pan dowds and custard pies will form part of the background for McMahan's Annual Kitchen Carnival, which will be held tomorrow and Saturday at their Torrance store, 1306 Sartori avenue.

Charles Markland, local McMahan's manager, said many valuable gifts will be awarded at the carnival. Among them will be a deluxe O'Keefe & Merritt range, a five-piece Ballou chrome dinette set, Motorola and Zenith radios and many others.

Mr. Markland also said that the first 1000 persons to attend the Kitchen Carnival would receive as a free gift, a large crimped glass candy and nut bowl. Gifts will be awarded at 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The first 1000 persons will receive a free gift when they register.

Balloons for the kiddies, free coffee, refreshments and demonstrations of many new appliances have been promised to those attending the carnival.

One of the features of the Kitchen Carnival will be Freda Nelson, famous home economist, who will demonstrate O'Keefe & Merritt gas ranges. She will whip up her famous Apple Pan Dowdy, custard pies, milk rolls and 100 percent whole wheat bread.

"She will amaze you as she throws these famous recipes together and demonstrates that every woman can be a good cook if she has a good range," Markland said.

Entertaining at the carnival will be Mr. Pethley, who will appear in authentic Scotch regalia piping Highland music on the bagpipes. He will be accompanied by his diminutive son, Wee Jack, only 3 1/2 years old. Wee Jack also plays the bagpipes.

In addition to the valuable gifts and refreshments, Mr. Markland added that special prices have been placed on furniture and appliances which were formerly in the El Prado Furniture Company stock and which McMahan's will no longer carry.
