Midgets Plan Playoff

A Shaughnessy-type playoff under the lights is being planned for teams of the Pee Wee league, according to the city recreation department and the YMCA, co-sponsors of the league.

Playing schedules have not been readied yet, but play will begin Saturday evening.

Walteria, CYO Win

Walteria and CYO grabbed off the only two games played last week in the Junior league.

CYO downed Keystone 3 to 0, while Walteria took a close one from Torrance Park by a score of 9 to 8.

The Streaks, who lead the Junior league with a 20 record, did not play.

PETTIT'S ARM OKAY

Paul Pettit's $100,000 arm, on the ailing list during the past week, is now out of danger, according to spokesmen for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Doctors at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore are now treating the valuable limb.

Mimura, Ordaz Named All-Bay

Two members of the 1950 Torrance High School baseball team have been named to the All-Bay League first string.

Centerfielder Victor Ordaz and Leftfielder Howard Mimura are the honored pair.

This marks the first time a Tartar has hit the first team of the Bay League since Harry Theodosis was named to the All-Star squad in 1948.

Mimura, called Tad by most and Ordaz, John three players from Redondo Beach, two from Jordan and one each from El Segundo, Inglewood and Leuzinger (a 10-man nine).

Mimura, who was playing his first season of baseball, led the Tartars in batting this year, getting a hit in every game and hitting a sound .317 during the Bay League season.

He also led in scoring, tied for number of walks taken (five) and caught one whale of a lot of balls that could easily have been hits for opponents.

Besides his meteoric career in high school baseball, Tad was student body president at THS this year, captain of the Bee basketball team, received a trophy as the most valuable member of the Bee football team, has been voted a life membership in California Scholarship Federation, and is nearly a straight "A" student.

Victor "Iron" Ordaz, considered one of the best all-around fielders in the Bay League, batted .304 for the season. He got three home runs, two doubles, one triple and nine singles during the season.

Coach Cliff Graybehl says Ordaz is a terrific shortstop, too, and he plans to move him into that position next year. Crawford, now playing short, will take up the third base spot, where he feels more at home.

Also mentioned for Bay League honors were Catcher Jim Taylor and Shortstop Billie Crawford.

Taylor was one of the Tartars to make the third team in the Bay League last year.

The following is the All-Bay League lineup:

Player	Position	School
Rice	P	Redondo
Henley	C	Jordan
Hirtenstein	3b	Redondo
Bisbard	2b	Redondo
Mitchell	3b	El Segundo
Lundberg	1b	Inglewood

Kiwanis Leading Field In Midget League Play

Meanwhile, Pueblo was taking NorTor 7 to 0, Kiwanis was taking the Bums, 14 to 5; and Walteria measured the Dukes, 7 to 0.

The week's play put the Kiwanis team on top of the Midget loop with four wins and one loss.

Lovelady Holds Industrial Lead

Lovelady Hardware continued to top the Industrial League this week when Al Coast pitched a two-hit shutout to the boys from American Rockwool Friday night.

The ball park was dark Monday and Tuesday evenings this week because of the Memorial Day holiday. Games scheduled for Monday evening were played last night after the Herald had gone to press.

In Thursday night's opener, Spud Murphy's National Supply team chalked up its fifth victory against one defeat by dropping Harbor Hospital 10 to 1.

Dick Bowman pitched an almost perfect game for the winners—he gave up one hit and one walk. One other man got on base through a fielder's choice. The Nationals made no errors.

National Supply 201 030 4-10
Harbor Hospital 000 000 0-0

Closing the evening Thursday, Potters Local downed the City Workers (UPWA) 5-1. The loss made six in a row for UPWA.

Len Kanatsky did the pitching to the winners, limiting the city workers to seven hits.

Breaks Record For Mile Set By Zamperini

Louis Zamperini's 11-year-old IC4A record for the mile finally fell at the championship meeting in New York last weekend.

George Wade, of Yale, broke from the field at the conference meeting to finish the mile in 4m. 10.8s to beat the former Tartar's record run of 4m. 11.2s, which he made at the 1939 IC4A championship meeting.

Zamperini, a former Torrance Herald newsboy, set his 1939 record while competing for the University of Southern California.

Season Opens for South Bay's Favorite Fishing

In case anyone asks you—and you never can tell—a 10-month season for grunion opens today.

All you need to catch the little fellows when they are running is your two or three hands, experts say.

You also need a 1950 angling license, according to the Division of Fish and Game. Oh! One thing more—for best results you should be at the beach the same night the grunion are.

Tartar Gridiron Prospects Good

By JERRY DOWNING

Looking forward to the 1950 football season, Torrance High School football coach Eddie Cole is hopeful of having a fine year.

The Tartars, for the first time in several years, will be capable of fielding an entire returning letterman squad. Led by co-captains Aramis Dandoy and Jack Faren, the Tartars looked very sharp in spring drills.

With all of the good backfield material around Torrance, the Tartars seem to lack only one thing—some weight on the line.

Coach Cole said: "If we can only open the holes up front, we've got the backs to rip the Bay League apart."

The probable starting line up for 1950 will be as follows:

At ends, Cal Browning and Beryle Jones; at tackles, Jim Leech and Doyle Crowshaw; Jim Dummeyer and Dick Ferguson at guards; Sophomore Ted Marcoux should hold down the center spot.

In the backfield will be Faren at quarterback, Dandoy & Glenn Boyce at the halves, and Joe Clevenger at fullback.

Other boys who looked good in the early workouts were guards "Ge Ge" Johnson and Bill Bourne. Both showed a lot of hustle and were blocking very well.

Ends Irwin Kasten and Ray Kelly also looked good on the receiving of passes from Dandoy and Faren. The Tartars are loaded with good backs such as James Smith, Kenny Roberts, Bill Crawford, and Gary Groves.

The entire team shows a lot of spirit and should go well next year.

A five-inning game from American Rockwool in Friday's first game.

Justice knocked out a home run and a triple in three official trips to the plate, scoring both times. He walked his last time up.

Only one man got on second base for Rockwool—only five got to first. Every Lovelady player scored at least once.

Line score:
Lovelady Hardware 006 37- x-16
American Rockwool 000 00x x-0

Steelworkers turned in a surprise performance Friday night by blanking the once-beaten General Petroleum squad 5 to 0. Playing almost errorless ball behind the fourth-hit pitching of Jim Ortega, the Steelworkers were never seriously threatened from the start.

Frank Mendez and Manager Jim Meyer led the batting for the winners, each collecting two for three.

Line score:
General Petroleum 000 000 0-0
Steelworkers Local 100 310 x-5
