

BEVERLY LUSTER DOUBLY HONORED AT PEPPERDINE

Miss Beverly Luster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Luster of 1515 Crestview, boulevard, recently was initiated in Epsilon Eta Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority.

The home of Dr. Hugh Tiner, president of George Pepperdine College, was the setting for the formal candlelight ceremony at which initiates received their pins and corsages following six weeks' pledging. The same evening the chapter held its annual banquet at Browers, Long Beach, for members and their escorts. Highlight of the evening's entertainment was a novel music program presented by the initiates.

Announcement was made that Miss Luster, a student this year at George Pepperdine College, has received a renewal scholarship which covers music and academic subjects.

Christian Church Group Reviews Year's Affairs

The June meeting of the ladies of First Christian Church held Monday proved to be a gala affair. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Elva Howell, president, turned the pages of the annual "Year Book" which very cleverly portrayed in cartoon and picture the year's work. One page particularly showed the growth of the women's organizations of the church, including "Ladies Aid," "Ladies Missionary Society," to the present "Woman's Christian Fellowship," embracing all the women of the church and their work.

The officers for the ensuing year were installed by Mrs. William Bartholomew before a table beautifully arranged with a colorful ribbon for each officer. Fitting into this setting was the reading given by Mrs. Cecil England as devotional, entitled "The Cross," followed by Mrs. Phil Jensen singing "Are Ye Able?" The following officers responded: Mrs. Elva Howell, re-elected president; Mrs. Phil Jensen, first vice president; Mrs. Ed Pritzschke, second vice president; Mrs. Ray Lovce, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Beight, secretary; Mrs. Leonard Babcock, missionary; Mrs. Burke Mosely, social action; Mrs. Cecil England, devotions; Mrs. Bud Edwards, family life; Mrs. Perry Connett, stewardship; Mrs. Ed Rodgers, church service; circle leaders; Mrs. Carl Steele, Mrs. Vince Viellenave, Mrs. Art Barnett and Mrs. Earl Eckert. The president announced the following who will also serve: Mrs. Rodepouch, ways and means; Mrs. Minnie Foreman, librarian; Mrs. William Bartholomew, hospitality; Mrs. Melvina Beekwith, sunshine; and Mrs. Frank Franzen, world call.

The ladies then adjourned to the banquet room where they gathered around tables decorated according to the four seasons of the year and were seated according to their birth months. "Birthday Cake" was served by the outgoing circle leaders. Mrs. Rodepouch, Mrs. Viellenave and Mrs. Steele were given much credit for the lovely table decorations and work involved in making the dining room so attractive. After an enjoyable fellowship hour, the meeting adjourned.

SAN FRANCISCO DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Elder and daughter Anna May were guests this past week at San Francisco's fashionable Balaika, where they enjoyed dinner and a concert.

DINNER PARTY

Colonel and Mrs. Edward C. Alley of 1412 Acacia avenue entertained at dinner Sunday for his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. York. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas York and children, Sharon, and Douglas, all of Torrance; and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Larkin, of Hollywood.

The Palace of Minos on the ancient island of Crete had more rooms than most modern skyscrapers. According to The Book House for Children, it was inhabited by about 100,000 persons and included storerooms, offices, courtrooms, chapels, schoolrooms, libraries, soldiers' barracks, coach houses, wine shops and an inn for strangers.

The Bosnian bridegroom strikes the bride three times. The first blow is to make her forget her parents, the second to make her forget former lovers, the third to make her fear her husband. — H. G. BEIGEL.

Walteria News Notes

BY MOLLIE I. DOWD

Mrs. Mary Anthony of Whittier was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lorine Harline, 24283 Los Codona avenue, over the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McGlasson of Los Codona avenue are moving to their new home, 1027 7th street, Hermosa Beach, this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft and son, 23850 Ward street, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip to Illinois and other points in the Midwest.

Grapevine rumors have the following bits of news: Mrs. Laura Wray, of Neece avenue is in the market for a motel, preferably in the desert region. George Brandl, of Hawthorne boulevard is contemplating opening a spaghetti house somewhere in this vicinity. George knows how to make a delicious dish of spaghetti, too!

Walteria residents are proud of their park, but who are the culprits damaging the trees? One of the palm trees recently set out near the library building has had all but one of the fronds broken off, and several of the eucalyptus trees have had branches broken off.

Guests Sunday, May 28, at the home of Mrs. Laura Wray, Neece avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bogart of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilman of Yucaipa, and George Brandl of Walteria. Canasta was played in the afternoon, followed by television programs.

Isaac Brock of Newton street has been on the sick list the past two weeks. At the present time he is improving, though he is still at Harbor General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Polston of South Gate are the parents of a daughter, born Friday, June 2. They also have a son, Jimmie, age 19 months. Mr. and Mrs. Polston are well known in Walteria, as they both lived here with their parents before their marriage. Mrs. Polston is the former Mary Gouker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pickett of Newton street, accompanied by Mr. Pickett's mother of Hawthorne, enjoyed a motor trip to the Mojave desert near Inyokern over the holidays. They report the weather a bit on the warm side, but quite a welcome change from the chill of the coastal area.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whittington of Neece avenue returned from their fishing trip to Convict Lake in the High Sierras, and report the weather ideal and fishing very good.

Guests of Mrs. Laura Wray of Neece avenue during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry McGinnis and George Brandl. Mrs. Wray took her guests to see the Ice Capades at the Pan Pacific Auditorium. Mr. McGinnis has invited Mrs. Wray and her guests to attend the wrestling matches at the Ocean Park arena.

Mrs. Thomas B. Smith of Glendale was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roland M. Harrison of Los Codona avenue Wednesday.

The annual Mothers Day banquet of the Pandora Club was held at the Walteria Recreation Hall on Thursday, May 25th. A very enjoyable evening was spent by members and their guests. Mrs. Joe Vaverka of 3820 242nd street, and Mrs. C. D. Woods, 22801 Ocean avenue, planned and served the very delicious dinner. The program committee, headed by Mrs. Fred Stevens of Palos Verdes, assisted by Mrs. Dale Wands, 24255 Los Codona avenue, and Mrs. Larry Booth, 3240 Dalemead, presented the evening's entertainment.

The numbers were a reading, "Definition of Mother," by Mrs. Wands; songs "Mother" and "Bells of Saint Mary's" by Janice Weaver, accompanied by Dorothy Oliver, both of Redondo A. skit, "Little Boy's Questions," by Mrs. Frankie Stevens, 3618 Newton, and Mrs. Ronald Taylor 24223 Neece avenue; a poem, "My Mother," read by Mrs. T. M. Kirk, 3810 Pacific Coast highway, and a ballet dance by Darlene Farrer, 24219 Los Codona avenue. Darlene was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Raymond Farrer at the piano.

The beautiful decorations and table settings were the work of Mrs. Ronald Taylor, Mrs. Joe Snow, and Mrs. Mae Moton. Prizes for the eldest mother and mother of the largest family went to Mrs. Mamie Logan, 24455 Ward street, mother of Mrs. Taylor, and to Mrs. Edna Roth, of the Sunshine Court. Mrs. Roth was the guest of Mrs. O'Brien, also of the Sunshine

Auto Courts. Corsages were furnished for all guests by the members of the Club.

Guests other than members were Mrs. Margaret Weaver, Redondo Beach, Mrs. Edna Roth, Mrs. Regina Gooler, Mrs. Grace Graham, Mrs. Gee Kendrick, Mrs. Helen Conze, Mrs. Margaret Kettering, Mrs. Margaret Tinkle, Mrs. Irene Laughlin, Mrs. Opal Falkenstein, Mrs. Mamie Logan all of Walteria, Mrs. Grace Ehlers, of Paso Robles, Mrs. Elsie Ness, Palos Verdes, Mrs. Marge Higgins, San Pedro, Mrs. Clara Schirk of Torrance and Mrs. Pearl Patronsky of Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Raymond Farrer, and daughter, Darlene, the Misses Janice Weaver and Dorothy Oliver.

WOMEN OF MOOSE ELECT OFFICERS 14th

Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, last night held its monthly card party at the Moose Hall, 1744 Carson street. It was the first card party in the newly dedicated hall. Hostess for the evening was Martha Jones, membership chairman.

Regular meeting of the chapter is set for June 14, when officers for the new year will be elected. Co-workers nominated for office are: Senior regent, Ruth Dobson, Grace Taylor and Ionia Steele; junior regent, Georgia Chapman and Esther Venable; chaplain, Virginia Hazel Powell; recorder, Daisy Murray; treasurer, Ethel Johnston and Hattie Smith. The junior graduate regent for the ensuing year will be May Nelson.

A 6 o'clock potluck supper will be served in Moose Hall
