Bridal Party Held at Fay Home

Miss Joan Kannasto was the honoree at a well-appointed bridal shower at the home of Mrs. David E. Fay, 2011 W.

242nd street, Thursday night. Co-hostess for the party was Mrs. Victor Bittner. White and yellow were used for the decorations and the dining-room table was centered with white carnations and tall yellow tapers. White wedding bells suspended from the ceiling and a white container held the many lovely gifts which were later opened by the honoree. At a late hour a buffet supper was served.

Numerous games were played with prizes going to Mesdames Mollie Ames, Howard MacPeak, Bart Bettner, Vincent Bauchers, Ray Olson, Hannah Makl, Peter Bauchiero and the honoree, Miss Kannasto.

Others attending were Mesdames Riley Patton and daughter, Harry Bell, Roy Huhta, J. Richard Jones, Lester Phillips, William Bell, Albert E. Kannasto and Miss Lois Kannasto of Lomita; Bessie Reid, Long Beach; Thomas Shepherd, Joan Dandoy of Torrance; Louise Hartmann, Harbor City; Celeste Coisino, Wilmington; Ernest Saari, June Bittner, Gardena; Emma Huhta, Mason S. H. A., Norma Lee, Richard T. Johnson, Hilda Gustilo, M. Stange, Irene Wilson, Keith Kuhl, Jr., Lillian Murphy, the Misses Nancy Stange, Kathryn and Lige Phillips of San Pedro and Mrs. John Gutzen, grandmother of the honoree, of Racklin, (Cal.).

OES GRAND MATRON PAYS OFFICIAL VISIT SUNDAY

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening filled Torrance Masonic Temple to capacity, to pay tribute to Margaret Hughes Lauritzen, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, who came to Torrance for her official visit to the 72nd district. She was accompanied by 18 members of the grand family.

One hundred eight officers of the six chapters which comprise the 72nd district, visiting worthy matrons and worthy patrons, past matrons, past patrons and members totaling 350, were present.

The outstanding event began with the address of welcome by

Bowlings Fete Son on Birthday

The second birthday anniversary of little Lance Christopher Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Bowling, 1853 W. 322nd street was an eventful day for the little man when other family members arrived to wish Lance many more happy birthdays and to join him in refreshments.

Indoor pictures were taken and the evening passed quickly with conversation for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowling, sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Van Devander; Frank Bowling and sons, Tommy and Kenny and the hosts and honoree.

Faculty is Honored at Luncheon

The auditorium of Orange St. School was attractively decorated for the luncheon which honored the school faculty Wednesday. The potluck dinner were in charge of the Parent-Teacher executive board and the room mothers.

Miss Frances Dastarae, Principal, and Mrs. T. Campud, school clerk, were presented with gifts for their outstanding cooperation throughout the year. Mrs. James Flagg, chairman of the luncheon, was assisted by Mesdames William Farwell, James Long, and J. D. Hulse. Table decorations were in the hands of Mrs. C. L. Wilson who also made small hand-crocheted sunbonnets as favors. Announcement was made that the association would present Mrs. Marvin Owen, Tenth District President, with a check for $135 as a contribution for the new district health center at the Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council annual breakfast June 7.

Scout Mother Club Meets At Keiths

Mrs. Alice Keith entertained the Scout Mothers at her Woodward avenue home with Mrs. Marguerite Ferguson presiding during the business meeting. A trip to Hollywood to attend the television show "What's the Name of That Song" was planned for June 8 and Mrs. Hilda McGee invited the club to meet at her home, 2314 Pacific Coast highway, June 13.

Later in the evening refreshments were served to Mesdames Lyle Hudson, Hilda McGee, Gladys Boyce, Susie Holmes, Agnes Russell, Julia Steigh, Marguerite Ferguson, Margery Spain, Lucy Baker, Polly Stevens, Jo Woodward, and Mona Glover.

A tuition-free leaders' training course, to train leaders of Great Books community discussion groups, will begin Tuesday, June 20, it was announced today by Quentin Ogren, Southern California director of the Great Books Foundation. There are no formal educational requirements. The course lasts 12 weeks.

Fashion Show June 9 Open To Public

A fashion show featuring vacation fashions and honeymoon attire will be presented at Harbor Junior College on Friday evening, June 9, by the members of the Professional Modeling Class, according to Miss Peggy Mason, instructor.

The show is open to the public and will be held in the Women's Gym building beginning at 8 p.m. Harbor Tech coeds who will model the latest fashions are Gae Benson, Agnes Armstrong, Carol Graham, Patricia Judson, Jerry Rosin, and Connie Kolberg.

Students in charge of the affair are: Vivian Robertson, models director; Peggy Roene, commentator; Mary Trutansh, and Beverly McKee, decorations; Patricia Blackman and Gloria Chavez, hostesses; Joanne Price and Barbara Moore, serving hostesses.

Intermission instrumental numbers will be offered by the Harbor Tech string quartet.

Panhandler Election Is Held

Mrs. Evelyn Vandette was elected president of the Panhandlers at the semi-annual meeting of the organization last week when several events were planned for the next few weeks.

Elected to serve throughout the next term were Lillian Kattila, first vice-president; Rita Wyeckoff, second vice-president; Heidi Chudy, secretary; Jo Parson, treasurer. The committee for the evening was Heidi Chudy and Jo Parsons.

The Panhandlers will assist with plans for the Job's Daughters picnic at Anaheim Park June 18 and will attend the breakfast at Torrance Park Sunday, June 11 when the Lomita Masons will be in charge of another hearty ham and egg breakfast.

A Mexican dinner will be the next fundraising event for the Panhandlers when Masons, their friends and families as well as the general public will be urged to attend. The date has been set for June 28 at the Torrance Masonic Temple.
