William J. Dietlin Takes Lovely Bride in Ceremony

Catholic Church of the Nativity was the setting for an impressive ceremony when William Joseph Dietlin, son of Mrs. Helen Dietlin, of 1007 Portola avenue, took as his bride Miss Dolores Rose Korosec, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Korosec of Inglewood. Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor officiated at the nuptial mass, attended by 100 relatives and friends of the principals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a gown of French lace, fashioned en train with a full skirt and fitted bodice, which was attached to a bertha collar. Her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Severn was matron of honor, wearing a gown of yellow embossed organdy and carrying a bouquet of variegated lavender carnations. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Jack Chase and Miss Bridgett Blythe, of Inglewood, wore identical embossed organdy gowns of lavender and blue, respectively. Variegated yellow carnation bouquets complemented their costumes.

Last Meet Until Fall

Mrs. Evelyn Schwab, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, conducted the June business meeting in the church Thursday.

Mrs. Hilda Booth, leader of the M.Y.F., announced a jitney supper would be held in the church tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. After the business meeting, a delicious luncheon was served by Circle 1.

The afternoon program was presented by Mrs. Lucille Bender, vice president. Two violin numbers were played by Miss Harriett Mattheis, accompanied by Mrs. Norma Dobrick. An impressive pledge service was led by Mrs. Marjorie Lund, who was assisted by Misses Ethel Hutchison, Lenora Gray, Lucile Vandeventer, Eurma Allen, Viola Goree, Esther Buchanan, Alice Palmer, Nellie Surelaire, Lillian Robinette, Helen Clarkson, Marion Chambers, Bessie Box, and the pastor, Rev. Clarence E. Miller. Next meeting will be held September 14.

Reception Follows Ceremony

In a ceremony performed Saturday morning in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, Doris Juanita Pratt of Lomita became the bride of Terrance R. Burns of Cleveland, Ohio.

Lovely in a beige suit with dusty rose accessories, Mrs. Pratt was attended by Mrs. Bebe Cannon, who was attired in beige with pink accents. Roy Mahorn attended the bridegroom as best man.

Following a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyder of Seaside Ranchos, Mr. and Mrs. Burns left for a honeymoon trip at Crestline.

Informal Luncheon

A surprise pot-luck luncheon, prepared by the board members of 156th Street P.T.A., was given for the president, Mrs. Samuel Dow, Thursday, June 8, at the home of Mrs. Vernon Gilligan, 1594 W. 136th street.

Mrs. Dow was presented with a beautiful gift as a token of appreciation for her services as president this past year.

MRS. FRANK M. JARRATT

Jarratt-Nitzel Nuptials Solemnized in Church Rite

In an impressive Sunday afternoon ceremony, performed in Catholic Church of the Nativity, Miss Jeannine Ruth Nitzel, of 2254 250th street, Lomita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nitzel of Riverton, Oregon, became the bride of Mr. Frank M. Jarratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jarratt of 1634 Arlington avenue. Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated.

Jack Nitzel gave his sister in marriage. For her wedding the lovely bride chose an exquisite gown of white satin with seed pearl trim ornamenting her lace Peter Pan collar. Her veil of bridal illusion was draped from a white satin bonnet which was edged with seed pearls and caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a white orchid on a matching prayer book.

Mary Randels was maid of honor in a gown of pale green lace and net. Red carnations in a heart-shaped garland with matching headpiece complemented her gown. The bridesmaids were the Misses Connie Navarro, Dorothy Fontes and Beverly Perkins. The Misses Navarro and Fontes were attired in pink lace and net, and Miss Perkins wore an identical gown of light green. Heart-shaped garlands of pink carnations and matching headpieces completed their costumes.

Eugene Northway served the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Charles Hoyt, Jay R. Stroh and Jim Helfrich.

A reception followed in Nativity parish hall, where Mrs. Peggy St. Thomas and Mrs. Dwayne Holstein served the tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. Helen Byrne served the punch.

Following a honeymoon trip to Balboa and Lake Arrowhead, Mr. and Mrs. Jarratt will receive their friends at 1550 Marcelina avenue.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School and attended Compton College. Mr. Jarratt received his diploma from Torrance High School and now is attending Loyola University.
