

IN THE HAWAIIAN MANNER... Mrs. Fred Cochran (center) places about the neck of Dr. Ward G. DeWitt one of the 85 Hawaiian leis she designed and constructed for the Hawaiian dinner dance held Friday in the Lafayette Supper Room by the Auxiliary to the Long Beach Osteopathic Society and the Magnolia Hospital. Mrs. Cochran's first attempt at making a lei some years ago took her more than an hour to construct. Now, the head designer for "Flowers By Nadine," local florist, is able to turn them out every five minutes. Helping Mrs. Cochran prepare the leis were Mrs. W. Wesley Rome (standing) and Mrs. Edward W. Neushutz. The leis were made of white and variegated carnations, Easter-Reed daisies and Batchelor buttons.

OES CHAPTER WELCOMES JOB'S DAUGHTERS' QUEEN

It was with much pride and pleasure that Torrance Chapter the Eastern Star, the honored queen of Torrance Bethel 50 International Order of Job's Daughters.

Miss Patricia Clere was the candidate so honored. She is Thursday evening initiated into membership in the Order of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Estill Clere of 1637 Juniper avenue. She concluded her term of office Saturday, June 17, by installing in office as her successor, Miss Beverly Luster who will serve the Bethel as honored queen during the next term, under the able guidance of Mrs. Edna Babcock, guardian and William Bremner, associate guardian.

Worthy Matron Gladys Moberg formally opened the chapter and under escort presented from the East Myrtle Rockas, worthy matron of Point Fermit Chapter, San Pedro. After introducing the past matrons and past patrons, the worthy matron announced the appointment of several officers, the temporary vacancies being occasioned by illness and vacations of the regular officers. Those appointed were Helen Miller, past matron; Frances Buckley, past matron; Jeannette Clark, past matron; Edna Babcock, past matron; Alice Ruppel and Florence Viellenave.

Worthy Patron Frederick Cook and the officers were, as usual, exceedingly proficient in performing the dignified and beautiful ceremony of initiation, which was enjoyed by all the members, particularly Mr. and Mrs. Clere.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the worthy matron re-

When William Wordsworth was summoned to London by Queen Victoria, in recognition of his genius, the great poet appeared before her attired "in a suit of borrowed clothes... a size or two too small." According to the Book House for Children, Wordsworth in come "had always been meager, and he had no guineas left to spare for couturier's clothes."

mind the members that the chapter will be dark during July, the next meeting to be held August 3, and expressed the hope that all would have a restful and joyous vacation.

The festivities in the banquet room were under the direction of the hostesses and hosts of the chapter; Kathleen Ritko, Lillian Starks, Dorothy Warning, Mary Schulz, Patricia Patterson, Harold Ritko and Ernest Mosher, and included impromptu musical selection and comedy numbers by members of the Bethel.
