

Nazarenes Plan Bible School Demonstrations

The work of the Daily Vacation Bible school, which has been in progress for the past two weeks at the Nazarene church, 1501 West Carson street, will be on display tomorrow night for the benefit of parents and friends of the children.

The program will begin at 7:30 p. m., with a demonstration of memory work. At the conclusion, all guests will be invited to visit the very fine display.

Saturday is the day for the annual Sunday school picnic. It will be held in the Torrance City park, from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Games, contests, and everything that makes up a good picnic are scheduled.

Rev. Miller Reappointed

Rev. Clarence E. Miller was returned as minister at the Methodist church here as a result of the appointments made at the Redland's conference of Methodists last week.

Expressing his pleasure at being returned this week, Rev. Miller predicted a good year and promised to work to help the church keep pace with the rapidly growing city.

Attending the conference last weekend were Clarence Miller, Jr., Bill Paxton, and Norman Stock. They went up for the two-day Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting.

Rev. Fred Ross was appointed to the San Pedro First Methodist church to serve his 22nd year there. Rev. Robert J. Kersey was appointed minister for the Alondra Park church.

SNACK TIME... Crowding around a snack bar set up for young folks attending Methodist Youth Fellowship day at the Redland's conference of Methodists are Ellen Dean McCasland, of Redland's, Venita Neely and Joan Neely. They are all trying to wait on Norman Stock—and he's happy about it.

Christian Crusade Fund 'Over the Top' by $90

A victory dinner celebration was enjoyed Sunday by members of the First Christian Church. Chairman of the culminating event in the three-year "Crusade for a Christian World" project, Art Barnett, was master of ceremonies for the celebration. He reported that the local church had that day exceeded its goal of $3600 by about $90.

Of the goal $2200 was raised during the year just completed. Over $300 was received Sunday in coin containers which members had been filling in their homes during the past six weeks.

Barnett reported that seven of the cartons contained enough money to entitle their donors to a carton of ice cream, an award he had promised to those who filled their cartons with pennies.

The winners are: Mrs. G. A. Woodcock, Miss Clarice Imline, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peet, Mrs. Estia McNeis, Rev. and Mrs. Cecil England, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stock, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pletschke.

Features of the program were vocal numbers by Cecil Dandy, member of the staff of Avalon Community Center and former member of the "Wings Over Jordan" choir, a talk by Mrs. Carnelia Barnes, director of the Avalon Community Center, on "What It Means to Share," an original poem on the aims of

Change in Time Of Services Told by Pastor

Services at the First Christian Church will change to 10 a. m. this Sunday, according to Rev. Cecil J. England.

During the summer months of July and August the Sunday School classes and the regular church services will start at the same hour.

This schedule makes it possible for parents to bring their children to Sunday School and remain for church services themselves, Rev. England said. Both Sunday School and church will conclude at 11 a. m.

This Sunday is to be observed as "Freedom and Democracy Day" in Christian Churches across the United States.

"This is an effort by the Disciples of Christ to put a Christian interpretation into the national observance of our Fourth of July celebration, and to inspire a greater devotion to the Christian and Democratic ideals of American Freedom," Rev. England commented.

The pastor will preach this Sunday morning on the subject, "Freedom in Faith."

Evangelical Communion Service Set

First quarterly communion service of the new church year will be celebrated Sunday, July 2, at the 11 a. m. worship service in Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, Marcella and Arlington avenues. Rev. U. S. Schauer will bring a communion message entitled "A Message for Troubled Days."

The Sunday School with classes for all age groups meet each Sunday at 9:30 a. m.

Foursquare Bible Class Plans Display of Work

Display of the work of the Daily Vacation Bible school is scheduled for 7:30 at the Foursquare church tomorrow evening.

Teachers as well as the pupils will participate in the program, according to Mrs. Martha Bell, director of the school. The children will be brought to the program by buses if desired, Mrs. Bell said.
