TORRANCE GIRL RECITES VOWS IN MILITARY RITE

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, of 2113 W. 218th street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lt. Lillian V. Jones, WAC, and Lt. Howard L. Worthington Jr., son of Captain Howard L. and Mrs. Worthington of New Bedford, Mass.

The candlelight service was held in the oldest Episcopal church in the United States, Burton Parish Church, Williamsburg, Virginia. The bride wore a navy blue suit, white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. Her only attendant, Miss Jean Werrell, daughter of Col. A. Werrell of Fort Lee, Va., wore a light blue flowered dress, black accessories and an orchid corsage. Lt. John Brady of Fort Lee attended the bridegroom as best man.

Following his advanced training at Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, the couple will leave on a three-year tour of duty in Germany.

Gift Showers Compliment Young Torrance Matrons

Mrs. Robert Tolson, the former Doris Lee Quaggin, was honored at an attractively arranged shower given recently by Mrs. Vivian Caulkins and Miss Marilyn Thomas, at the Caulkins home, 2022 Plaza del Amo.

Pastel green and yellow decorated the bassetin filled with gifts which was guarded by a tall stork. Appropriate games occupied the group following the opening of beautiful gifts for the heir-to-be. A stork-decorated cake and other refreshments were served from a lace covered table, colorful with lighted yellow tapers entwined with fern and yellow rosebuds.

Present were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Roberts, her mother-in-law Mrs. William H. Tolson and Mmes. Kenneth Lockman, Melvin Miller, Don Moyer, John Agapito, Dexter Bradford and son Randy; all of Torrance; Gail Cox, El Segundo; Thomas Denman, Long Beach and the Misses Mary Ellen Crawford and Wanda Moeke of Torrance; Dorothy O'Brien, San Pedro and Margaret Thomas, Santa Monica.

Another colorful party enjoyed by members of the younger set was a pre-adoption shower given to compliment Mrs. W. C. Boswell, of 803 Acacia avenue. Mrs. E. E. Grayton opened her home at 1020 Crenshaw boulevard for the evening affair and Mrs. W. B. Lewis Jr. assisted her as co-hostess. Bridge and canasta furnished diversion following presentation of the baby gifts. Novel cradle nut-cups and kimona-style napkins added an interesting note at the refreshment table where

Daughter Arrives

Susan Terry Hoxie, 7 pounds, 12 ounces, was born June 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Tom Hoxie of Long Beach.

The father was for a number of years a representative of the Long Beach Press-Telegram handling the news of Torrance. Now employed as promotion director for the Columbia store in Long Beach, Hoxie has served on a number of occasions as master of ceremonies and announcer for several Torrance Area Youth Band concerts and parades.

Torrance Students Receive State Music Certificates

The Long Beach music studio of Lulu Burnham, with its old-fashioned clavichord, large pipe organ and two grand pianos, made a lovely room for the spring auditions of the "National Musician Guild," with concert artist Paul Stoye as adjudicator.

Torrance students who received State Certificates were Margaret Davis, Linda Wiese, Ronald Thayne, Agnes Morris and Stella Emery. The students received high ratings from over average to excellent and superior minus.

Glady's McDougall Evans, music instructor and sponsor of the Torrance group of students, was highly complimented on the excellent musicianship, the large repertoire and difficult grade of solos the students played for their ages.

Stella Mae Emery, who received a superior minus grade, is only 12 years old. Dr. Stoye checked 14 outstanding marks on her card. Stella lives at 1572 W. 215th street, Torrance. This group of students plans to enter spring '51 auditions for national honors and certificates.

Catholic Women Set Card Party

Mrs. Bernard Dougan will serve as hostess chairman for this evening's Catholic Ladies weekly card party in Nativity hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be purchased at the door.

At the close of play, while tallies are being added, delicious refreshments will be served by Mrs. Dougan and her committee.

Assisting with party arrangements are Mesdames Walter Schaefer, John V. Murray, Anthony Jessome, Philip Halloran, John Allen, Sylvester Sullivan, Alfred Dutz, John Harvey, William Souza, Edward Souza, William C. Walter, and Gabriel Saenz.

Young people tell what they are doing, old people what they have done, and fools what they wish to do.

Silence is not always a Sign of Wisdom, but Babbling is ever a Folly.

At the close of play, the guest of honor opened her many lovely gifts and refreshments were served. The customary blue and pink motif prevailed, and a stork, flanked by floral arrangements, stood guard over the buffet supper where a beautifully decorated cake was cut.

Mrs. B. T. Whitney, president of Senior Woman's Club; Mrs. Joseph Lukes, Torrance YWCA program director; Mrs. Leland Hughes, Los Angeles District president of the Junior California Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Harris, associate advisor of the Los Angeles District Junior CFWC; Mrs. S. V. Rauss, past president of Torrance Senior Woman's Club and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, Mrs. J. E. Stavert and Mrs. W. I. Laughon junior advisors.

Following dinner, Mrs. Albert Smith, program chairman, introduced Barbara Stiers and Lloyd Jones, local vocalists, who delighted the audience with their duet and solo selections. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Merlyn Anderson.

Mrs. H. P. Jensen graciously received a large hand painted Bavarian sugar and creamer, cups and saucers from the Junior Executive Board Committee.

Advisors Mrs. Dean L. Sears, Mrs. John Oursler and Mrs. W. T. Tillotson were presented with a lovely cup and saucer by Mrs. Jensen in behalf of the Junior Club women and Mrs. Leland Hughes, installing officer, was presented with a scatter pin.

Honor was bestowed upon Mrs. M. B. Miller and Mrs. L. A. McCoy who are leaving the Juniors to become members of the Senior Woman's Club in October.

Mrs. William Walmsith read a letter from Mrs. M. L. Kent, chairman of the Torrance YWCA committee, stating that the City Council has taken action to grant to the YWCA for their proposed clubhouse, a site located adjacent to the County Health Center on Carson street at Plaza del Amo. The Torrance Junior Woman's Club has raised approximately $11,500 toward the construction of the building.
